LEATHER NOVELTY.

An Attractive Article, Which Would Be Suitable For a Man's Den.

FOR YOUR DEAT.

Contrast with the furnishings of his den. The frame shown here is of most graceful leather and the decoration is a man's head combined with fir cones.

FOR YOUR FRIEND.

Packages of several hundred correspondence cards engraved with monogram or with street address, or both, make an acceptable gift.

Save Your Mint.

To preserve mint for the winter wash the mint leaves in vinegar, drain chop and put them in wide necked bottles; then cover them with vinegar and an airtight covering-tissue paper dipped in white of egg or milk does excellently.

Sign Language.

Brown and Jones were having their usual stroll and had just had a few minutes' conversation with Robinson, who was accompanied by his wife.

"Did you notice that Mrs. Robinson never said a word?" "Oh, yes," said Jones. "You see she's deaf and dumb."
