St. Michael's.

On Monday, the feast of Christmas, solemn high mass was celebrated at midnight by Rev. M. J. Hargather assisted by Rev. Adolph Edelman as deacon and Rev. Francis Hoefen as sub-deacon. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Adolph Edelman. Adeste Fideles was sung by Miss Jule Frank. Solemn vespers were held at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The regular meeting of the Young Ladies' Sodality will take place Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

St. Boniface.

Christmas day was celebrated with impressive ceremonies at this church both in the morning and evening and all the masses and services were well attended. The celebrant of the midnight mass was Father Boppel who also gave the sermon, explaining the meaning and significance to the Christian world of the birth of Christ, and on closing extended greetings and good wishes with the God's blessing to the large congregation. The mass was sung by the St. Boniface choir under the direction of Prof. Philip Kreckel. In the evening a harmonized Scherble took place last Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. M. J. Hargather, assisted by Rev. Francis Hoefen, as deacon and Rev. Adolph Edelman as sub-deacon and Rev. John P. Schellhorn was master of ceremonies. Rev. Joseph Bairl, Rev. Otto Geiger, and Rev. Edward Bayer were in the sanctuary. Rev. Bishop Hickey gave the last evening in preparation for the anniversary. The members of the choir sang the requiem mass. Rev. M. J. Hargather gave the last blessing at the grave. He was a member of Branch 34, C. M. B. A., and the St. Anthony's Benevolent Society.

St. Peter and Paul's.

A reception was tendered Rev. Edward Eschrich by the members of the parish who gathered in the school hall on Wednesday evening, Dec. 20th, and presented him with a purse. Mr. Peter A. Vay was chairman and Mr. Edward Kluber presented the gift with an appropriate address. Rev. J. E. Gefell and Rev. Wm. Stauder expressed their regret at the severance of his association with them and extended to him their best wishes in his new field at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church.

The promoters of the Apostleship of Prayer, Sacred Heart League, will receive Holy Communion on next Friday morning, Jan. 5th, and on Friday evening special services will be held at this church at 7:45 o'clock, at which time the Director General of the League, Rev. John Boppel, will distribute crosses and diplomas to the new Promoters, at the altar railing. Rev. Dr. Nolan, chancellor of the diocese, will give the sermon for this occasion, explaining the various good results derived as a member of the League, its foundation, etc. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given on the closing of the services. It is the duty of every Promoter to receive Holy Communion in a body Sunday morning, Jan. 7th, at the 7:30 o'clock mass, as this is the first general communion for the new promoters, it is absolutely necessary that each Promoter receive Communion in a body. Special indulgences are gained by performing these duties. These indulgences may also be obtained by the members of the League, by receiving Holy Communion on Sunday morning, and it is expected that a large number will avail themselves of this opportunity.

St. Boniface.

The Rochester Business Institute opens its mid-winter term Tuesday, January 2, at which time new classes will be formed in all courses and subjects of study. Our offices will be open every day this week and also on Monday, January 1, in order to enable our prospective patrons to come and see us and talk over our prospective courses for themselves or their children. January is a good time to start either the commercial, shorthand or stenotypy courses because the average student can complete the course before the vigorous fall demand for employees comes on in September. He is then ready to take advantage of the good positions that are ready for him. Phone or call for further information.—Adv.

St. Boniface.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Estelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henny C. Grell, to John Thomas Grell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Howe, took place Tuesday morning, Dec. 26th at this church. Rev. D. J. Curran officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Mildred C. Grell. Charles E. Crowley attended the groom.

St. Boniface.

The bride wore a suit of African with a picture hat and had a corsage bouquet of bride roses and orchids. The bridesmaid wore a green broadcloth suit, trimmed with Hudson seal and had a picture hat. She wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses.

St. Boniface.

The prenuptial affairs included a linen shower, given by Miss Helen Gregg; a variety shower, given by the bride's mother and Mrs. H. G. Hieligenmann, and a kitchen shower, given by Miss Irma Wyckoff.

St. Boniface.

After spending the winter in Arizona, Mr. and Mrs. Howe will make their home in Rochester.

The masses on Sunday will be as follows: 6, 7, 8:30, 9:30 and 11:45 o'clock.

St. Boniface.

A fast game of basketball was played at Genesee last Thursday evening between St. Mary's five and the Genesee Independents, the latter winning the game by a score of 55 to 47. The game was well played and very interesting throughout and had it not been for the Referee who called almost everything "foul" on St. Mary's five they would have stood a chance of winning the game. He penalized our boys no less than fifteen times. The Genesee Independents will play a return game in this city with St. Mary's quint in the near future.

St. Boniface.

The funeral of Gertrude Lighthouse, wife of Isaac N. Francis, aged 36 years, took place on Tuesday morning at 8:30 from the house and at 9 o'clock from this church. Besides her husband, she leaves three brothers, Homer, George and Walter Lighthouse; and two sisters, Mrs. C. P. Sullivan and Miss Stella Lighthouse. Interment was made at Holy Sepulchre cemetery.
