ROME'S GREAT COLOSSEUM.

A Grim Theater of Death That Was Drowned With Blood.

The most imposing theater ever erected by mortal hands, a grim house of death, consecrated by blood and tears...

In the construction of the Colosseum its builders adhered to the then new note of superimposing the three orders—Doric, Ionic and Corinthian...

But who thinks of that standing before it today with the golden Italian sunshine glorifying every scar and conjuring back from the dead past vivid spectacles of Roman holidays...

WHEN PETROLEUM WAS FREE.

That Was Very Early in the History of This Country.

The first reference to the discovery of petroleum in America was contained in a letter written in 1629 by Joseph de la Roche d'Abillon...

In the northern part of Pennsylvania there is a creek called Oil creek, which empties into the Allegheny river.

It issues from a spring on the top of which floats an oil similar to that called barbados tar and from which one may gather several gallons a day.

The troops sent to guard the western posts halted at the same spring, collected some of the oil and bathed their joints with it.

How the Ancients Bathed.

April at Rome is said to have consumed no less than 340,000,000 gallons of water a day...
