The Newly-weds Social and Pedro Club were entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Munding of 65 Tyler St.

The various officers of the societies of this church met at the Parish Hall, Tuesday evening and with the aid of Father Schmitt, our assistant pastor, arranged many details and business matters for the Bazaar to be held after Easter, the proceeds to go towards defraying the expenses incurred in decorating the interior of the Church, which is estimated to cost over $4,000. It is very gratifying to see the many members of this church co-operate with the committee and the priests of the parish to strive to make this event a grand success.

On Friday evening last, a linen shower was held by Miss Rose Ritz at her home, corner Meigs and Whitmore Sts., for the benefit of the Bazaar. Great numbers were in attendance and a choice variety of linens were obtained for the Church Bazaar. This event was the first means of obtaining articles for the booths at the fair, and it was most pleasing to witness the happy and zealous workers that showed themselves eager to help in this good cause. The day morning at 8:30 from the and coffee was served and a number of willing musicians entertained with piano and vocal selections.

The Holy Name Society will go to Holy Communion in a body at the 7:30 o'clock mass Sunday morning, January 21st, the members to assemble in the Parish Hall at 7:15 o'clock.
