Corpus Christi.

The masses at this church on Sunday will be as follows: at 7, 8:30, 9:30 and 11 o'clock.

The requiem masses this week were for Daniel McCann and Mrs. Meyer.

There will be a meeting of the Charity Guild at Convention Hall Sunday evening, Jan. 28th at 8 p.m. The Right Rev. Bishop will present the annual report. An address will be delivered by the Hon. Laurence J. Collins. All the members of the parish are invited to attend.

The monthly debt collection will be taken up at all the masses next Sunday.

The annual reception and card party of Branch 251, L. C. B. A., will be held Friday evening, Feb. 2nd. The chief object of this party is the getting together of the members and their friends for a pleasant evening's entertainment and as cards seem to be the most popular form of amusement in which old and young can participate many will try their luck. Judging from reports of the committees this promises to exceed all previous efforts.

The members of Branch 139, C. M. B. A., and Council 40, C. R. & B. A., are invited. The committee has secured valuable prizes and a pleasant evening is assured to all.

The masses at this church on Sunday will be as follows at: 5:30, 6:30, 7:30, 9:00 and 10:30 A. M. (High Mass at 10:30). An English sermon will be given at the 7:30 and 9:00 o'clock masses. Vespers and Benediction will be held on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A concert for the benefit of the war sufferers, consisting of the widows and orphans will be held at St. Joseph's Hall, Franklin Street, on Monday evening, January 29th. Piano and vocal solos will be given by some of the best talent in the city. There will be ten numbers in all. The Male Quartette Rochester Harmony Four will sing "Beyond The Horizon."

A meeting will be held on Sunday evening for the Third Order of St. Francis.

A solemn mass was celebrated this week in honor of the Feast day of our church, at which the students of St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries from this parish attended.

The funeral of Mrs. LePlant took place from this church on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

A requiem mass was said this week for Francis Held.

The Holy Family and Holy Name Societies received Holy Communion at the 7:30 o'clock mass last Sunday.

The masses on Sunday will be as follows: 6, 7, 8:30, 9:30 and 10:45 o'clock. Sunday school and vespers at the usual hour.

The men and boys of the parish will receive holy communion at the 7 o'clock mass Sunday morning.

The funeral of Martin Edward Nolan, son of the late Thomas and Elizabeth Nolan, who died in New York city, Saturday, Jan. 20th, 1917, was held on Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the home of his brother, Thomas J. Nolan, No. 43 Alexander St., and at 9 o'clock from this church. He is survived by two brothers, Thomas J. and Walter Nolan, both of this city. Interment was made at Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The regular monthly meeting of the Confraternity of Mary was held in the assembly rooms last Sunday afternoon when the following officers were elected: President, Miss May Martin; vice-pres., Frances Hyde; Secty., Mildred Sheldon; Treas., Myrtle Dalton. The annual banquet of the Confraternity will be held at the Richmond Hotel on Wednesday evening, Feb. 7th. The committee in charge of the banquet will be as follows: Misses Mary Duffy, Sadie Dove and Gertrude Gauthier. Tickets may be procured from the committee or at the rectory, and it is the wish of the committee that all who desire to attend to kindly secure their tickets at least three or four days before the banquet so that the necessary preparations can be made. The following members were appointed on the sick committee: Misses Nellie Burrows, Helen Dunn, Margella Graigon, Margaret Flannery and Margaret Nolan.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Hear Ye! The mid-winter festival of the Young Men's Association will open next Monday evening in the church hall, South St., and will continue for three nights. Elaborate preparations have been made by the committee in charge to entertain all who attend, royally. During the past week members of the committee have been erecting and decorating the various booths at which all kinds of useful articles will be sold. Refreshments and lunch will also be served. On each night of the festival different attractions will be put on. The proceeds of this festival will be used to defray the expenses of the club in furnishing its new Club Rooms. If you want to see the Young Men's Association prosper attend the Festival and "Loosen Up" a trifle, it will help some. As the admission fee is only 10cts, every one ought to attend. Don't forget the dates, Jan. 29, 30th and 31st. The general committee is composed of general manager, John Norton; Francis Hayden, Herbert Bohrer, John Kavanaugh, Leo Fleming and Charles McCracken.

The masses on Sunday will be at 6, 7:30, 9, 10:30 o'clock.

It was very edifying to witness the large number of members of the Holy Name Society who received Holy Communion in a body on last Sunday morning.

On last Monday evening the regular monthly meeting of the Apostleship of Prayer in league with the Sacred Heart was held morning at the Parish Hall. Besides the promoters of the League a large number of the members were in attendance. Our Reverend Director, Father Boppel, gave a very interesting lecture and also answered the different questions that are placed in the "Question Box" by the members each month. After the meeting, a progressive pedro party was arranged by our President, Miss Gertrude Dabbertin and a most pleasant and sociable evening was spent by the members. Father Boppel furnished the prizes, there being four high and one booby prize.

The "Crucifixion" on the side altar was repainted by Samuel Samolisky, a Russian artist, who has been but a short time in this county, and who shows great ability in painting pictures of our Lord and the Saints.

On last Sunday, the yearly reports of the Church were distributed. The receipts and expenditures of the past year were compiled in a neat and clear manner and on the final page a summary is given of the number of baptisms, communions, marriages, funerals and children attending school.

Another enthusiastic and well attended meeting was held by the Bazaar committee and the various officers of the Societies on last Monday evening. The zealous committee together with Father Boppel and Father Schmitt are receiving the support of every member of the parish and with the keen interest and real enthusiasm shown during the past week the fair can be safely predicted to spell "Success." Announcement was made on last Sunday that the Bazaar would be opened the first Wednesday after Easter. The C. R. & B. A., of this church held a supper and good old fashioned party at the Parish Hall on last Tuesday evening. Each member that attended this affair stored away into the Armory of Joy a supply of "Smiles" and contentment and announced it was the best ever.

The Misses Eleanor Erdle, Rose and Florence Link are spending a winter vacation on a trip to New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

The masses on Sunday will be as follows: at 6:30, 8:15, 9:30 and high mass at 10:45 o'clock.

On Saturday morning at 8 o'clock a requiem mass was celebrated for Mrs. Mary Knope, at the request of Br. 62, L. C. B. A. The regular meeting of Br. 62, L. C. B. A., will be held on Thursday evening, Feb. 1st, when assessment No. 335 will expire. The prizes at the last meeting were won by Mrs. Anna Zuern, Margaret Reger and Susie Fleck. A committee composed of Mary Brezinski, Margaret Reger and Margaret Carlin were appointed to draft resolutions on the death of Mrs. Knope.
