Fencing a Continent. The state of South Australia has since 1891 erected 29,148 miles of "vermin fences" enough to encircle the globe and with the remnant build a double line fence along the southern border of the United States.

Soap an Antiseptic. Some medical authorities explaining the abatement of epidemic diseases in recent years, are sufficiently free from professional ties to attribute this betterment of conditions not to medical science, but to the increased use of soap and water.

The Rubber Situation. We as a people are almost absolutely dependent on Great Britain for our supply of crude rubber, as the great plantations are largely controlled by British capital.

Telephone We Use. A recent calculation as to the average number of people to every telephone places Chicago and Albany in the lead, with 6.1 people to a telephone.

Undoubtedly. Miss Wilcox had been giving the class an elementary talk upon architecture.

His Arguments Are Unanswerable. We put it to him this way: "Why don't you get married?"

Logic. "You said that your wonderful death dealing inventions would make war impossible."

Ancient Glass. That which is believed to be the oldest specimen of pure glass with any thing like a definite shape is a little molded lion's head bearing the name of an Egyptian monarch of the eleventh dynasty, in the Slade collection at the British museum.

Easily Explained. Mother—I wonder how this book got in such a horrible condition? Little William—I heard papa say it was to dry for him, so I poured water on it.

A Perfect Likeness. Mrs. E.—Oh, what a beautiful face! Who is it? Painter—That, madam, is your daughter. Mrs. E.—What a perfect likeness! I think you must paint me!

A Household Jewel. "Is your new maid competent?" "Very. She can even fool agents and peddlers into believing that she's mistress of the house."

WHAT IS TAKING PLACE IN THE GREAT NEBULA IN ANDROMEDA.

We look today on the things of a century, a millennium ago. Light traveling at the rate of 186,300 miles a second requires more than four years to come from the nearest star, perhaps thousands and tens of thousands of years from the farthest; hence in every case they are not what is, but what was.

WAR CORRESPONDENTS.

They Don't Have the Liberty New They Had in Former Times. In his book, "Over the Front in an Aeroplane," the author, Ralph Pulitzer, tells of the experiences and the treatment of the press representatives in the great European war.

Where Gannets Swarm. One of the most remarkable sights in the world is Bird Island, in South Africa, for the reason that during some months of the year it is literally covered with gannets.

She Meant Well. An independence bride, in order to show her love for her husband, decided to launder her husband's shirt.

Winded. "Can't you let me have something on account today, Mr. Jones?" asked the bill collector.

For Givers. Bunker—Did you read about the golfer who dropped dead right after making a 210 yard drive? Hunker—No, but I have heard of several golfers who have talked countless friends to death after holing ten foot putts.

A Perfect Likeness. Mrs. E.—Oh, what a beautiful face! Who is it? Painter—That, madam, is your daughter.

A Household Jewel. "Is your new maid competent?" "Very. She can even fool agents and peddlers into believing that she's mistress of the house."

What High School Girls Will Delight In First Term.

Jumper frocks for young girls are still modish. This one is set up in plumb colored serge and plaid taffeta, the latter attractively utilized as waist.

CLASS LEADER. and sleeves, youthful belt and body of skirt. The roll collar topping a deep cape is an interesting detail.

HOMEMADE PORTIERES.

How to Make Attractive Hangings For Your Living Room. Very pretty portieres can be made at home by exercising a little ingenuity.

Opening the Stubborn Knife. Does your penknife blade refuse to open? Here is a certain and easy method of bringing it to terms.

A GOOD STUNT. How to Shop and Take Care of Baby at Once. A hint for the woman who must take her baby with her on shopping trips will not come amiss.

Chip of the Old Block. "There goes a millionaire who brags about his son to everybody who will listen."

Think of This. "Found an honest man yet?" we asked Diogenes.

How They Love Each Other. Agnes (yawning)—Oh, dear, I feel to day as if I were thirty years old!

A Fine Distinction. "Is her husband a medical man?" "No, I think he's just a specialist, or something."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Be Just and Fear Not. Let all the ends thou aimest at be thy country's, thy God's and truth's.—Shakespeare.

SOME BASEBALL RECORDS.

Big Shutout Scores in the Modern History of the Game. In the early days of baseball white-washing a team was one of the most sensational episodes of the game.

Because of the radical changes in the rules of the game it would be rather misleading to measure present standards with the models set up in "ancient" days.

Three times in the National league a score of 19-0 was turned in. The first was made on July 15, 1903, in a game in Pittsburgh, the Pirates shutting out the Washingtons by these figures.

The third 19-0 game was played at New York on June 7, 1906, Chicago defeating the Giants.

In the American league Detroit shut out Cleveland, 21-0, on Sept. 15, 1901, and on Aug. 31, 1907, New York shut out Washington, 20-0.—Philadelphia Ledger.

CAPTURED THE AUDIENCE.

Ned Harrigan's Plea at the Critical Point in a Play. Edward Harrigan once said that the most trying moment in his theatrical career occurred in New Orleans soon after the war between the states.

Harrigan, standing in the wings in his northern blue, waiting to go on, had just one thought—"They'll kill me!"

At once the house was caught and all the pentup feeling turned the right way. There was a yell of applause and the audience was won.

Does your penknife blade refuse to open? Here is a certain and easy method of bringing it to terms.

Place one corner of your handkerchief over the back of the stubborn blade and wind the rest of it tightly around the knife.

"There goes a millionaire who brags about his son to everybody who will listen."

"Found an honest man yet?" we asked Diogenes.

Agnes (yawning)—Oh, dear, I feel to day as if I were thirty years old!

"Is her husband a medical man?" "No, I think he's just a specialist, or something."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

YOUNG FOLKS' CORNER

Characteristics—A Game.

A game called "characteristics" furnishes good fun among friends whose personal peculiarities may be hit off good naturedly.

Have as many cards as players, and at the top of each card write the name of one of the players. In a column on the left write the following: Instinct, genius, pity, courage, obstinacy, humor, taste, tact, generosity, truthfulness, affection.

Each one then fills in the percentages, according to his idea of the person's character or in a jesting spirit, as he chooses.

After this each card is read aloud and the merrits cause much amusement.

"Hypnotizing." In order to play this game you must have two small dishes, each with a little water in it.

The Parson of Bombay are called the "five worshippers" of the east because they hold in great reverence five things they brought with them from Persia and have never allowed it to become extinguished in their hearts.

The religion of the Parsees is one of the ancient religions of the world and was the religion of Persia when that country was second in power of the four great empires of the world—Babylonia, Persia, Greece and Rome.

To play the game of "trades" the players divide into two equal parties. One party retires and decides upon some trade or occupation, when they advance to the second party, saying: "Here are some men from Bombay. Got any work to do today?"

What month of the year is a Hebrew falsehood? July.

What kind of a robbery is never dangerous? A safe robbery.

What is the difference between a watchmaker and a jailer? One watches, the other watches cells.
