The funeral of Joseph O'Brien took place on Tuesday morning at 8:30 from the home, 85 Jefferson Ave., and at 9 o'clock from this church. Requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. J. E. Gefell. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful and there was a large number of memorial cards. Burial was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

St. Mary's Church.

The masses on Sunday will be as follows: 6, 7, 8:30, 9:30 and 10:45 o'clock.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Van Auken Ball, who died in this city on Friday morning, April 20th, aged 80 years, was held on Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Farrell, No. 522 South Avenue and at 9 o'clock from this church. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. J. H. Farrell and Mrs. C. Sprague and two brothers, William F. and Frederick J. VanAuken, all of this city. Interment was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

On Friday evening, April 20th, the Catholic Base Ball League met in the club house of the Young Men's Association on South St., and elected the following officers for 1917: President, Wm. J. Burke; Vice President, Frank T. Rossney; Treas., Harold Clancy; Sec'y., Francis S. Hayden. This is practically the same administration which handled the affair of the League last season, with the exception of the election of Clancy as treasurer. May 7th was suggested as the opening date. The A. O. H., team was admitted to the League, managed by Frank Mulcahy, and will be a representative team. Players will be taken in from all branches of the A. O. H., in Monroe County. The Board of Directors of the Catholic League will consist of the following men: Charles Fahy, St. Joseph's C. Y. M. A.; Frank Mulcahy, A. O. H.; Thomas E. Garvey and Ray Guppy, Knights of Columbus; Walter Major, Holy Apostles; William E. Hogan, Holy Cross, Charlotte; St. Mary's, John Norton.

Men's Watches Extra Good For the Money

They are watches that were ordered long ago, but were delayed in coming. If we had to buy them to-day, we should have to ask considerable more.

Perfectly accurate—all movements we have sold for years and know to be good.

The popular plain models of wafer-like thinness.

Gold filled watches with white or gold dials, $7.50. Same movement in nickel case, $3.75.

Gold filled watches with silver dials and raised figures—distinguished looking, $7.75.

Gold filled watches with 17-jewel movement, 20-year case, silver dial, $13.50. These watches will last a lifetime with ordinary care.

If you want something particularly fine, how about a 14-karat solid gold watch with 21-jewel movement, at $65? Main Floor, Aisle C.
