Father John's Medicine Has Done My Baby a World of Good

Father John's Medicine has done my baby the world of good. It has built him up wonderfully. He was very pale but now he has good color. I gave Father John's Medicine to my little girl and it built her up fine. She was also nervous and restless and it cured her of all this. It is the best I ever tried. (Signed) Mrs. Wm. Lee, 18 Monmouth St., Lawrence, Mass.

Broil With Gas

There is no comparison between a fried steak and one that is broiled. The broiled steak is more juicy, more palatable and, authorities say, more easily digested.

Gas for broiling has all the advantage of other fuels without their disadvantages.

The gas fire is absolutely clean and can be controlled to a nicety—therefore it is more sanitary and the results more satisfactory.
