Elihu Root should be an ideal head to the American Commission to the new Russian Republic.

Governor Whitman may be the second great "War Governor" of New York State.

President Wilson might well recognize former Governor Martin H. Glynn as one of the American missions to the European countries.

With a brand new Rochester regiment in process of formation the Flower City should be heard from in Theodore Roosevelt's division if that ever be authorized.

Let us not heed the impudent demand to plow up the parks until all the other vacant land in Rochester is utilized.

The American youth, whether on farm or in the field are to have a taste of real discipline and will learn respect for authority.

Each battle in Europe is the most terrific, most sanguinary, most decisive of the war!

Rochester's Catholic young men are well represented in the Army, Navy and Marine recruits.

Crowns are not a pleasant head-gear in Europe these days we fancy.
