This is the Time of Moths

This is the season of the year when moths begin their work of destruction. You can't be too careful about putting away woollens and furs. They should first be thoroughly brushed and then packed away in tarine or cedarized bags, sheets or chests.

It's fly or die when the moths near tarine or cedarized bags. The garments are suspended on hangers and can be removed from the bag by simply drawing out the patent sliding tube fastener. No moths, no dust, no folding or wrinkling of garments. Your clothes are all ready to put on next season.

- Auto Coat Size Bags; tarine, $1.25; cedarized (white lined) $1.50. Ulster Size Bags, tarine, $1; cedarized (white lined), $1.25. Overcoat Size Bags; tarine, 85c; cedarized (white lined), $1. Business Suit Size Bags; tarine, 60c; cedarized (white lined), 75c. Muff Size Bags; tarine, 50c; cedarized (white lined), 60c. Tarine or cedarized sheets for wrapping carpets, rugs, curtains, and garments too large for hanging in bags. Also for lining wall of closets, trunks, drawers, boxes, etc. No more expensive than common wrapping paper; sheet 40x48, 6c; doz. 65c. Tarine Muff Bags, built to accommodate the new style muffs, 50c. Quaker Moth Chests, that will hold a great deal, and when not in use fold up to the thickness of three pieces of cardboard. $1.50. Houseware Section, Basement.
