Notice To City Subscribers.

Our collectors will call on subscribers next week. Kindly be prepared for them.

S. S. Peter and Pauls.

The masses on Sunday will be as follows: at 6:30, 8:15, 9:30 and high mass at 10:45 o'clock.

At the request of the Rosary Society a requiem mass was celebrated on Saturday morning for Mrs. Anna Steinhauer.

A meeting of Council 75, C. R. & B. A., will be held on Thursday evening, July 26th at 8 p. m.

The Lawn Social given by the members of Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 44, Knights of St. John was a grand success. Because of the rain it was held in the basement of the school and all enjoyed themselves.

The members of the Women's Sodality will have a social some time in August and expect everyone to get busy and help it along. It will be for the benefit of the church.

St. Boniface.

The masses on Sunday will be 6, 7:30, 9, 10:30 o'clock.

On next Wednesday and Thursday evenings, July 25th and 26th, beginning at 8 o'clock, the St. Boniface Footlight Club will present the new three act farce comedy, "Brown's in Town" as originally written by the well known playwright, Mark E. Swan. A most capable and well balanced cast has been selected for this farcical production and every player has opportunities to show his real merits and from indications during rehearsals of the past weeks, the play will prove a tremendous success as the ludicrous situations and complexing trials involved will be the means of a series of laughs from the rise to the drop of the curtain. Special scenery has been built and painted for this occasion, the main act being the scene of a summer residence with a back garden. Edward F. Hettig has been directing all rehearsals and promises one of the liveliest farce comedies ever produced by these Thespians. The director as well as the players have donated their services and also every penny of the proceeds will go to the American Red Cross Society for which benefit this noble work has been offered and it is expected that the general public will respond accordingly by patronizing this play or at least not refuse to purchase a ticket for this good cause. The admission will only be 25 cents and reserved seats of which there is only a limited number will be 25c extra and can be obtained at the Rectory or from any of the co-workers. Bear in mind the patriotic slogan "If you can't go—give". Remember the dates, July 25th and 26th at St. Boniface Hall, corner Gregory and Nicholson Streets, at which the following cast will appear: Edward Lettau, George Klee, Joseph Vollmer, Carl Schoenherr, Lester Munding, Ruth Weider, Agnes Jaeger, Josephine Kraemer and Mae Weider.

July 24th, Tuesday, is the day set for the annual outing of the Young Ladies' Sodality of our Church and will be held at Newport. Sunday there will be a special meeting when final arrangements will be made to accommodate the big happy crowd. It is hoped every member will attend the big time as the committee have promised a new and novel program and a royal good time.

St. Michael's.

The order of masses for Sunday will be as follows: First mass at 6:00; children's mass at 8:30; high mass at 10:00 o'clock.

The requiem masses for this week were for: Regina Harter, George and Apollonia Schreiner, Joseph Stenglein, Frank Arenmaier, Anna Saenger, Felix and Catherine Feltz, Carl Stephany and the Poor Souls.

The funeral of Mr. Anthony Kleinhaus took place Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Solemn high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Wm. Rice of Clafin, Kans., a nephew of the deceased assisted by Rev. Matthias Hargather as deacon and Rev. Francis Hoeffen as subdeacon. Mass was sung by the augmented church choir. The bearers were Peter, John, William and Fred Kleinhaus, Fred Rice and Edwarg Wein-gartner, nephews of the deceased. A number of visiting clergymen were seated in the sanctuary. Burial was made in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Miss Eleanor Winterhalter of 517 Remington St., is spending two week's vacation at Kauka Lake.

The funeral of Mr. Frank Vogt took place Friday morning at 9 o'clock. He is survived by his wife, Helen Treyer Vogt; one son, Clarence; one daughter, Loretta; his father, John Vogt; three brothers, John, George and Elmer Vogt; three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Friedman, Mrs. Arthur Steinlein and Mrs. Alice Prestin. Mrs. William E. Staub of 342 Ave. A., is spending two weeks in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Holy Family.

Sunday evening the monthly meeting of the Third Order of St. Francis will take place.

A novena to St. Ann will start next Wednesday evening. The last three days there will be public services at which the relic of St. Ann will be exposed.

Friday morning a requiem mass was said for Sister Bertha Miller. Next Sunday at the 7:30 o'clock mass the members of the Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion.

The funeral of John Liedel was held Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

Cathedral.

Next Wednesday, July, 25th, is the feast of St. James, the Apostle.

Thursday, July 26th, marks the feast of St. Ann, the mother of the Blessed Virgin Mary, through whose intercession so many miracles are being worked daily in behalf of suffering humanity.

The marriage of Miss Mayme Sheehan and Charles Herald took place on Wednesday morning, July 4th.

The funeral of Raymond Norton took place last Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

St. Andrew's Church

The masses on Sunday will be at 6, 7:30, 9:15 and 10:30 o'clock.

A requiem high mass was said on Monday morning for Richard Merkel.

The closing of the novena in honor of St. Rita on Tuesday evening was conducted by Father Bresnham of St. Bridget's church.

The funeral of John G. Reuschle was held on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Interment was made at Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The Rosary Society's picnic will be held on Wednesday, Aug. 15th.

The Holy Name Society, under the chairmanship of Mr. Henry Richter, are preparing for its 3rd annual Lawn Festival to be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 7 to 11th. There is no doubt that it will be a big success. This year as a special feature there will be a Sham Battle on the grounds every evening. Vaudeville, games and amusements of all kinds. Refreshments including the famous Coney Island Hots.

St. Francis Xavier.

The masses on Sunday will be at 7, 8, 9:15 and high mass at 10:30 o'clock.

The requiem masses this week were for Victoria Schum, Mary Lippert, Margaret Farber and William Streicher.

Sunday is communica day for the men.

The Young Ladies' Sodality will hold their annual picnic on Thursday, July 26th, at Summer-ville. It has been arranged to meet at the Sodality room at 1:30 p. m. sharp. Chicken dinner will be served at 5 o'clock; sports and a general good time are assured, all for $1.00. The entire membership is invited and requested to be present and bring your friends.

A Red Cross Auxiliary Circle has been established at the parish under the chairmanship of Miss Elizabeth Lomb. Miss Julia Schmidt was chosen vice-chairman and four assistants were appointed to aid in the forming of the bands to carry on this work. The parish hall will be open on Wednesday afternoon and evening of each week to all who are willing to give their services in sewing, knitting and otherwise assisting this cause.

The St. Francis Xavier Red Cross Auxiliary Circle will hold a Pedro party and entertainment on Tuesday evening, July 31st, at the parish hall. Refreshments will be served. The admission fee is 15 cents.

Immaculate Conception.

John F. Ball died at his home, 146 Cady Street, Tuesday of this week. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Margaret G. Ball; three daughters, Marie Agnes, Marguerite Dorothy and Helen Beatrice Ball; one brother, Edward C. Ball; two sisters, the Misses Anna M. and Rose C. Ball; two nephews, Rev. John M., and Edward K. Ball; one niece, Miss Julia N. Ball. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus; C. M. B. A., Branch 98; Rochester Commercial Travelers and Union League Club.

The funeral took place on Friday morning from the home at 8:30 o'clock and at 9 o'clock from this church. Burial was made in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Rev. Frederick Jung of St. Joseph's Church is Seriously Ill.

Lying in St. Mary's Hospital in a serious condition is Rev. Frederick Jung, assistant rector of St. Joseph's Church. He is under the care of Dr. George M. Growney. Although he had been ill for several weeks it was not until three weeks ago that an operation was necessary. The operation was performed and for a time his condition was good. Lately, however he suffered a relapse.

Rev. Jung's brothers, Rev. Henry Jung, of St. Alphonsus College, in Esopus, and Rev. Lawrence Jung, a professor at St. Mary's College, in Northeast, Pa., have been called to his bedside.

A. O. H., Plan Social Events For Summer Months.

At the regular meeting of Division 2, A. O. H., held in Cathedral Hall, a committee was appointed to make arrangements for a series of social events for the division during the summer. A moonlight excursion on Lake Ontario is being arranged by Brother Irwin Wiedrick which will take place this month, and a committee has been appointed to secure grounds for the annual picnic.

Musical Given For the Benefit of Red Cross.

An interesting musical and reading program was given at the home of Mrs. George Whitney of Lake Avenue, on Wednesday afternoon, July 18th, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Miss Florence Mahon opened the program with a beautiful aria by Myerbeer and rendered the difficult passages with ease and grace. The young singer has a brilliant future before her. She is a pupil of E. M. McCarthy of Gibbs Street. The following also took part: Misses Lillian Tegg, May Cronin, Pauline Schwartz, Magdaline Scharis, Ruth Leggett, Mrs. Chas. Locke and Mrs. Harold Raymond. The other numbers were also very well rendered.

Free Carnival.

The first big free carnival ever held in this city will hold forth all next week at the Maple Street Ball grounds at the end of the Allen Street car line when the Krause Greater Shows will pitch their tents. This aggregation is said to be one of the cleanest on the road only high class attractions being tolerated. Thirty special cars are used in transporting the outfit which will unload at the Hague St., crossing Sunday afternoon. The following are classed as the feature attractions: "Monkey Speedway", "Whip", "Carryusall", "Bristols Dog and Pony Show", "Submarine", "Ferris Wheel", "Beautiful Superba", "Congress of Athletes."

The Royal Venetian Band composed of talented Italian musicians travel with the shows and will give concerts daily.
