Mrs. Edward Ritz of Mt. Vernon Ave., attended the Kimmell family reunion at Wayland, N. Y., on last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Halling of South Goodman St., celebrated their wooden wedding anniversary on last Monday and Tuesday evenings when about 40 people on each evening attended the 5th anniversary festivity. Tables were set on the lawn adjoining their residence and jack-o'-lanterns and old glory decorated the scene in a most fastidious manner where luncheon was served to the guests. Halling's String Quartette furnished the music and a veranda dance was the feature of the event. A number of good vocal solos were rendered by Mr. Halling and classical piano selections were given by Mr. Joseph Meteyer of Benton St.

Lest it be forgotten—Mildred of Meigs St., who has recently attained notoriety in the motoring circle, has informed the writer that insurance has now been taken out on herself and the touring car, so evidently this fact together with a little nerve tonic to guide the motoring hand will eventually mean the appearance again, on the main thoroughfares, of Mildred and her trick car.
