Store News for To-Morrow Told To-Day

The Men's New Fall Top Coats Are Here

We bought the materials way back last February before prices went airplaning. In June, when we were sure what styles would be correct for Fall we had them made up. That's how it happens that these coats, in spite of market conditions, are so remarkably moderate in price. We believe them to be unbeatable values. Two prices

$14.85 and $17.85

They are all wool—not near wool. In fancy and plain fabrics, many with plaid backs. They have all the marks of a top notch coat—felled seams, bellows-pockets with charmois linings, and all such indications of good tailoring.

The extra wide notch collar that may be buttoned up high in winter is a new idea.

The coat is a model that looks particularly well on young men. It has a buttoned belt in back, wide collar and is double-breasted.

For the more conservative man there are plain box coats with the wide collar.

For the man who is out a great deal of the time in winter, there are heavy, long, full-lined ulsters, with buttoned belt in back.

Look them over.
