IN MEMORIAM. Requiescat in Pace.

John N. Waring, who entered into rest July 30th, 1916, and whose anniversary requiem high mass was offered at Our Lady of Victory Church July 30th last. Was a graduate of Our Lady of Victory School, and also graduated with high honors from the Cathedral High School. He was a member of the graduating class of 1917 of Notre Dame University, Indiana.

Rest, beloved, in peaceful slumber. 'Neath sunny skies of heavenly blue. While gentle zephyrs sigh thy requiem. Our thoughts oft turn dear John to you. Sleep, beloved, thy life so brief. Was gentle, loving, faithful and true. Aspiring to all that was noble and holy.

Like the lily white that unfolds its petals. 'Mong other flowers that seem us fair. His life to all was an inspiration. A soul that loved was reflected there.

When dawned his perfect manhood 'Twas then the Master chose To claim the life that had lent its charm. Like the bough beauty of a full blown rose.

His cherished life in fond memories linger. And we who knew him will attest His sweet influence did lead us on To the things God loves best. No sleep in God's waiting arms. My shed onward toward the goal To win the laurels that must be won For his immortal soul.

True to the last and truest when All cares were laid aside. To render homage to him alone In whom all things abide. Like a flower rare in its perfect beauty. When last he knelt to pray. Was the heart he offered to his maker. On that memorable Sabbath Day.

Nobly he played his part in life. And his soul replete with love. Was ready when came the final call To a father home above. In heaven he stored the priceless treasures. The wealth of the world could never buy. A crown immortal awaited his coming.

O why should we mourn and sigh. We miss him and our hearts are lonely. Ad with the years they will come and go. Each one will make his memory sweeter. Because we loved him so. Oft times, in fancy, we hear his voice. As in happy bygone days. God assured that we must part. And inscrutable are his ways.

Sleep, beloved, white twilight shadows. Fall softly over the resting place In heaven resplendent by faith we see. Just one more Angel face. Weep not, 'twas just farewell. Until we meet to part no more. When we, too, shall enter the gates of heaven. And all sorrow will be o'er. M. C. W.

Why? Because such machines banish the soul trying, nerve-racking physical labor common to wash day in homes where the washing, rinsing and wringing are done by hand. With an "Eden" your laundress can do the washing in one-third of the time and the clothing will not only be washed better, but it will last longer. Between two and three cents' worth of electricity will do the washing for an average family.
