The regular monthly meeting of the Promoters of the Apostleship of Prayer in League with the Sacred Heart was held at the Parish Hall on last Monday evening.

Solemn closing of Forty Hours with procession and benediction took place at our church on last Sunday evening. A large number of boys and girls dressed in white formed the bigger part of the procession; the smaller girls strew cut flowers along the aisles and the heads of the various Societies acted as a body guard to the Blessed Sacrament. The devotions and services on Sunday and the two days preceding were well attended and it was also very gratifying to witness the large numbers to receive Holy Communion on these days.

The young ladies of our church will hold a Halloween party and masquerade at the Parish Hall on next Tuesday evening. The ladies are urged to attend this affair and make their appearance in a comical 'rigging.' The committee in charge have arranged an interesting and novel program.

The St. Boniface Young Men's Club will give a pedro party and entertainment at the Parish hall on Monday evening, November 12th, to which the public are cordially invited. It is expected every member will bring one or more friends as a good sociable time is promised. The St. Boniface orchestra which has just recently been organized will furnish music for the occasion and a clever and lively number of skits and monologues will be on the program following the Pedro party.
