FATHER KOENIG'S Nervine

Nerves Broke Down.
 P. J. Oberlin, Jan. Sept. 1915.
 Since about 12 years my nerves broke down I had pains all over my body—some days I felt downhearted but all days had good appetite. Pastor Koenig's Nervine had the desired effect against the trouble.

Mrs. J. Spur, 229 West St. N. Sheenans, died Pa. Sept. 1915 writes: I allow to sign my name for the good results I obtained through Pastor Koenig's Nervine and I tell it everywhere I was suffering for 4 years from nervous headache which disappeared so soon as I took Pastor Koenig's Nervine.

Mrs. A. P. Hoff writes from McClure, Pa. 175 N. Dak. that she could not sleep well any more since about 12 years tried many medicines but none had helped her so much as Pastor Koenig's Nervine.

Training Children.
 Do these things for your children says Leo Tolstoy. If you would properly train them:
 Let them do all they can for themselves—carry their own jugs, wash up, arrange their own rooms, clean their boots and clothes, lay the table. Believe me, that unimportant as these things may seem, they are a hundred times more important for your children's happiness than a knowledge of French or of history.
 These things train the children in simplicity, to work and to self independence.
 If you can add work on the land, if it be but a kitchen garden, that will be well.
 Believe me, that without that condition there is no possibility of a moral education, a Christian education or a consciousness of the fact that men are not naturally divided into the classes of masters and slaves, but that they are all brothers and equals.

ABOUT PERSONS

John Clingan of Goldfield, Neb., is recovering from a broken neck.

Joseph Fuller, seventy-eight, in Charlestown, Mass., had for 46 years been a prison guard.

J. M. Gage, asking divorce in Kansas City, alleges that his wife kisses him too often. He is twenty-two; she is fifty-two.

Mrs. Luella Coleman, dead in Pittsburgh, 15 years ago founded a home for negro boys which has thus far educated 500 orphans.

J. W. Wetrick, forty, of Vera Cruz, Ind., attended his first theatrical exhibition the other day, taking his first electric car ride on the way to do so.

SOME POSTSCRIPTS

Two French scientists contend that ten per cent of the chickens in that country have tuberculosis and that the disease runs as high as 28 per cent among poultry in some other nations.

Water is heated in a new garbage incinerator which contains a spiral grate made of brass pipes through which the water circulates, garbage being placed at the top of the device and falling as it is consumed.

The more extensively it is used the better are the results obtained from a Swedish system for stimulating backward children by circulating electric currents through the air of the room in which they study.

For automobile tourists a fireless cooker, refrigerator, set of vacuum bottles and dishes and silverware for six persons have been combined so compactly that the outfit can be carried on the running board of a car.

That he has discovered a partly electrical and partly chemical process for the reduction of nitrogen suitable for fertilizers from relatively cheap and easily obtained material is the claim of a Brown university professor.

To safeguard the health of painters a British commission has advocated a law prohibiting the importation, sale or use of any paint material containing more than five per cent of its dry weight of a soluble lead compound.

To obtain a powerful searchlight with a comparatively weak current, a Frenchman has mounted a number of incandescent lamps on a revolving circle, each in turn being illuminated briefly and their combined rays being collected by a reflector.—Houston Post.

CURIOS CONDENSATIONS

We have had envelopes since 1890.
 The Civil war cost the United States $8,000,000,000.

A newly invented butter pick has a lever attachment which pushes off its point a piece of butter that it has picked up.

A cutlery steel asserted to be non-rusting, unscratchable and un tarnishable has been developed by British manufacturers.

In order to prevent oil waste a frame which will hold a heavy oil can and permit it to be tipped for pouring has been invented.

According to the last available figures in Great Britain, 849 new works of fiction were published in a year, against 809 naval and military books.

Without stopping his train an engineer can move a lever in his cab and open a recently patented switch to enable him to enter a siding, the switch closing when the last car has passed over it.

Many of the kings of Spain accorded to the finest swordmakers of Toledo certain privileges, such as exemption from certain imposts and duties appertaining to the sale of swords, the purchase of iron and steel and other primary material.

The state of South Australia has, since 1891, erected 29,148 miles of "vermin fences," enough to encircle the globe and with the remnant build a double line of fence along the southern border of the United States. New South Wales has spent more than $27,000,000 for rabbit extermination and has within its borders 98,000 miles of fence.

SOME OBSERVATIONS

Confederate money has no redeeming traits.
 Patience is more often a necessity than a virtue.

Whisky is said to improve with age, but so few men let it grow old.
 No, you are not in the manufacturing line because you make promises.

Even the yellow dog was never known to humble himself by seeking office.
