St. Boniface Club News

There has been much activity at the club during the last few months and much has been accomplished for the moral and physical welfare of the young men. The attendance every evening is large, especially since the recent membership campaign which enrolled many new members. Joseph Bieber, who was so successful last year as president, is starting his second term and promises to do all in his power for the club.

Henry Biedenbach has acted as secretary since 1909, when the club was organized and has always taken a great interest in club matters. As chairman of bowling and pool no one is more capable than Kid Frank, the well known alley boarder and veteran ball player, who has fought many a rough battle on the diamond and now owing to his age has sold his glove and other relics and is spending the rest of his days on the alleys chopping wood.

Through his efforts the bowling league is a great success. Skip Hart's Aviator's have been flying high and have a good chance for the pennant, with Shorty Dick's infantry team close on their heels and almost over the top. Mader's heavy Cavalry team have retreated in safety to the third place in the league. Frank's heavy Artillery on account of fog on the alleys could not find the range and are prisoners in last place.

The St. Boniface bowling team claim the championship of the Catholic Club bowling teams. The pool tournament is now going on and old sure shot Flugler is leading.

The club's honor roll for military service is growing daily, having men in all departments of the service. Mail is received daily from the boys in camp who spent many happy days at the club.

The club does not forget the boys but sends things regularly to them. Private Schottmiller returned from Ft. Hancock and visited the club for a few hours recently. The young man expects a promotion in military and possibly matrimonial service soon.

The Club Orchestra organized by Father Schmitt is improving rapidly and is now able to glide over the rough waves of 16th notes without rocking the boat.

The club invites any young man over 16 to come to their rooms and hand in his application for membership.
