

For Straw Hats Come to Hat Headquarters

A man said the other day: "I like to buy my hats here because there are so many styles and I always get exactly what I want."

This season the variety and quality are squarely up to the usual Meng & Shafer standard—and that means the best of the best at both stores.

See the Canadian War Pictures To-Day.

It is a wonderful collection of War Photographs that is on exhibit at 15 North Street, in the Mercantile Building, close to our North Street entrance.

158 large pictures are shown. They are so clear that the men are easily recognized by anyone who knows them. The purpose of this exhibit is educational, to give the people of this country a better idea of what the war conditions really are.

Doors are open from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M.

Canadian officers, returned from the front, give hourly lectures beginning at noon each day.

You will find it well worth coming to see and you will better realize what this war is after seeing these pictures.

All money taken in admissions goes to the Canadian Memorial Fund.
