Many Mourn at Last Rites For Railroad Man.

Shortsville, July 9—The largest funeral in the history of St. Dominic's Church, Shortsville, N. Y., was held at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, when people from Manchester, Macedon, Rochester and Shortsville and all the surrounding country assembled to do honor to Lawrence McNally the young Lehigh Valley switchman who was killed in the Manchester yards on Friday morning of last week.

A requiem mass was said by Rev. William P. Ryan, of Clifton Springs, assistant rector of this parish, assisted by Rev. Felix J. O'Hanlon of Clifton Springs and Rev. Ernest Brophy, of the Immaculate Conception Church, Rochester. Arthur O'Hanlon, of Utica, a cousin of Rev. Father O'Hanlon, sang the mass, and at the close of the service sang, "Jerusalem, My Home".

Mr. McNally was 21 years old and was in Class A. of the last draft. He was born in Manchester and received his education in the Manchester High School. He was a young man of sterling habits and to know him was to love him. He will be greatly missed by all. The many mass cards and floral pieces were a high tribute to him.

The Knights of Columbus, C. M. B. A., and the Order of Railway Trainmen, of which organizations he was a member, attended in a body, marching to the church and then to the grave.

The following from these orders acting as bearers: Messrs. William Edinger, Francis Murry, Neal O'Harrigan and William Rhodes of Manchester, Joseph Fogarty and Thomas Kerins of Shortsville. Interment was made in St. Dominic's Cemetery, Shortsville.

Three Cardinals Issue Appeal for Prayer.

People Asked To Pray Three Times Daily For The Success of Our Arms.

Cardinals Gibbons, Farley and O'Connell have issued an appeal to the people of America to offer prayers three times a day for the success of our American arms, the unity of the nations, the guidance of our rulers and the welfare of heroes." The appeal, entitled "Fight and Pray," is as follows:

"From the moment when our country made its momentous decision to enter this tremendous conflict, the whole Catholic population of America has enthusiastically and wholeheartedly accepted its full share of work and sacrifice and has unstintingly put forth all its resources to stand with all other Americans in the defense of our sacred principles of right and national duty. The Catholics of America are in the vanguard of the nation's service on land and sea, in the trenches and in the works, and until this fierce combat is finished and the cause for which we fight has triumphed, their efforts will increase. Our President has clearly stated the high principles upon which that sacred cause rests—they are as universal as they are unselfish. We battle for the welfare of men of every nation, asking no special indemnities for our sacrifices other than those which all free men always seek.

"If we fight like heroes and pray like saints, soon will America overcome mere force by greater force and conquer lust of power by the nobler power of sacrifice and faith. Animated by this undaunted spirit, let the whole nation turn to God in prayer while our army courageously confronts the foe in the battle. While we utilize every possible source of material power let us fortify it all by the greatest of all spiritual power—prayer.

"Let us, however, each day, until the peace for which we fight crowns our efforts, say daily three times, morning at rising, at noon, and in the evening, the Angelus, for the guidance of our rulers, the success of our arms, the unity of the nations, and the welfare of heroes. And may Almighty and Eternal God hearken to the prayers of a united nation and grant speedily that peace which surpasseth understanding."

Vacation Time Is Here.

Schools have closed for the summer, and now the small boy can pursue, without restraint, his quest for pleasure. But it is not he alone who has been eagerly awaiting the summer season, for we grown-ups are also planning on relaxing from our every day labors.

The summer vacation should also provide a change from the every day scenes, and already thousands of vacationists have wended their way to the Great Lakes and, particularly, to Lake Erie, where are to be found the finest and largest steamers plying the inland waters of the world.

The largest and most magnificent of these steamers, the Great Ship "SEANDBEE", is now running daily between Cleveland and Buffalo, and her immense popularity is attested by the large volume of passenger traffic carried.

This trip not only appeals to the vacationist but also to the weary commercial traveler who, by boarding the steamer at Cleveland or Buffalo at 8:00 p.m., may break the monotony of his all rail journey, enjoy a refreshing night's sleep and reach destination at 7:30 the following morning, in plenty of time and with the inclination to start the day's struggles early.—Adv.
