Boys' All Wool Mackinaw Coats

We have just received one hundred of these mackinaw coats. They are heavy, warm, all wool garments in smart plaid mixtures in green, gray and tan.

Double breasted, of course, with patch pockets, and wind straps on sleeves, belted back and storm collar.

Boys who run and play, who are active in outdoor sports prefer a mackinaw to any other kind of overcoat. It leaves their legs free and at the same time keeps the body warm.

They are good practical coats for fall and winter wear—and remember these are all-wool and are specially priced at $8-95.
