

Friend of Errand Boys

By JANE OSBORN

There were many more questions of the same vein, and Alison answered them promptly...

What a joy for the errand boys! Alison was not only a friend to them...

Alison really ought to have been more cautious, but the very excitement of receiving the letter...

There is just one thing I'll have to ask you, said the young office man...

That means a lot of fairly active work, which would be all right if the boys had sense enough to profit by it...

So Alison reported the next day for work and proved with her pluck...

Yes, of course, she grew tired with her many errands, but the fatigue was rewarded by her healthy appetite...

Did he smoke cigarettes? If so, did he smoke in business hours?

Did he indulge in games of chance with other errand boys?

Did he eat for luncheon? Did he go to night school? How did he spend his evenings?
