

AMONG THE NEW SWEATERS

Sleeveless Garments Made of Ribbon; One With Long Ends Which Tie In the Back.

"Ribbons and laces and feminine graces" have been so continually linked together in verse that one suggests the other to the mind of the average person...

Another new type of sweater that is proving very popular is the one with long ends which cross in the front and tie in a sash at the back.

VEILS ARE NOW THE RAGE

Face Covering Has Gained a Prominence That Has Not Been Equaled in Many Years.

In looking over present modes, notes a fashion correspondent, we can surely say that the accessories seem to be more important than the key itself.

SMART COAT OF TAN VELOURS

Substitute for Linen Now in Market Demand and Serving Numerous Good Purposes.

The vogue for using out both for any one of the new compositions which go under the same name in place of linen is growing apace.

This attractive coat of tan velours corduroy is a very stylish and serviceable garment for afternoon and evening wear.

FOR STREET WEAR

One-Piece Dress Important Part of the Wardrobe.

Tailored Frocks, Not Suits, Predominate in Fashion Throughout During Shopping Hour.

The one-piece dress for street wear is by far the most important single item of a well-dressed woman's wardrobe.

Each season brings out its own special coats, with navy blue always in the lead, and this year navy black is being worn.

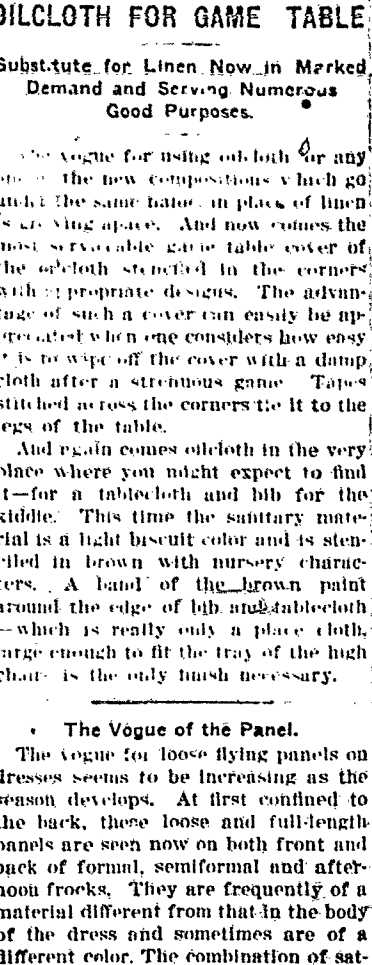

Tailored Frock of Black Velvet.

terless black of mourning but black satin and velvet and the black velours.

SMART COAT OF TAN VELOURS

Substitute for Linen Now in Market Demand and Serving Numerous Good Purposes.

The vogue for using out both for any one of the new compositions which go under the same name in place of linen is growing apace.

This attractive coat of tan velours corduroy is a very stylish and serviceable garment for afternoon and evening wear.

MAST OF FLESH GEORGETTE

Simple yet extremely becoming is this bijou waist of flesh georgette.

Simple yet extremely becoming is this bijou waist of flesh georgette. The double collar of knife plaiting, the turnback cuffs, held by bows of moire silk and the box plait with an interesting line of hemstitching through the center are items worthy of note.

BEADED NOVELTIES ARE HERE

Woven Chains for Neck Wear Among the Attractive Trinkets Which Have Been Imported.

Among the novelties which have been imported in this country and are selling in various places are chains to be worn around the neck.

One, for instance, of electric blue and silver beads, is woven in patches about an inch and a half long by a half inch wide.

GOWNS AND HATS OF WHITE

These Promise to Be Prime Favorites This Winter, Velvet to Figure Prominently.

White is to have a vogue this winter. Long white coats are very smart indeed. So much so white is to be in evidence this season that smart milliners are bringing out many hats of white velvet, or at least showing some trimmings of this sort introduced here and there.

EXTRA WARM EVENING WRAPS

Favored Garment Folds Around Figure and Has Double Thickness Over Chest.

Certain economists buy a semiformal frock that will serve for any hours between four and five p. m. with its own coat, which relieves them from the purchase of an extra evening coat.

SONG OF LITTLE THINGS

By Jeanne Judson. A clean, white bed in a quiet place.

A cigarette and the saving grace of smiles that illumine the nurse's face.

And children who play, forgetting pain.

And children who play, forgetting pain.

And children who play, forgetting pain.

And children who play, forgetting pain.

And children who play, forgetting pain.

And children who play, forgetting pain.

RED CROSS SANTA TO Fill Soldiers' Socks

An Old Fashioned Celebration of Yuletide for American Soldiers in France.

A Christmas tree in every ward of every American hospital and in every military recreation hut in France.

Every wounded or sick American fighting man to receive two socks filled to the brim with French nuts, candies and smokes.

These are the most interesting features of a Christmas celebration program for the American soldiers arranged by the American Red Cross in France in cooperation with the commanding officers of our fighting forces in that country.

The Christmas dinner, of course, will be one of the features of the celebration. After dinner there will be musical entertainment, motion pictures and general singing.

RED CROSS FIGHTS DEADLY EPIDEMIC

By the special week continued by the members of Red Cross Chapters throughout the country in checking the recent epidemic of Spanish influenza.

The New York State health department has just issued a bulletin through its headquarters at Washington in preparation of a report on the epidemic of the epidemic.

There is much discontent in Catalan among business men and other residents over the closing order promulgated by the health bureau officials.

Just how hard the Spanish influenza hit Buffalo during November is indicated by the health department's report, which shows 23,381 cases and 2,328 deaths.

The retail price of milk in Hornell has been increased to 15 cents a quart as a result of the increase of the Dairyman's league for the month of December.

About 35,000 pounds of boys' winter hats were raised by Stephen Juvenile Boy's club contest which closed on Nov. 15.

John R. Davis of Oakfield has been appointed postmaster at Oakfield to succeed Dr. A. F. G. Zurlow.

It is the opinion of Buffalo clergymen that the ex-kaiser should be tried for murder. The topic in several churches was based on "What should be done with the Kaiser?"

Newfane's preserving company has packed this year nearly 60 tons of cherries, 100 tons of squash, 10,000 cases of tomatoes and 5,000 cases each of plums and apples.

Commissioners for nurses who served in war were advocated in addresses at the sessions of the 17th annual convention of the New York State Nurses' association in Rochester.

Mrs. Mary Nolan, who has four sons in the service, led a parade preparatory to the dedication of a service flag with 783 stars in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic parish in New York city.

New York's health department reports that there had been a total of 130,606 cases of Spanish influenza in that city since the epidemic started with 10,794 deaths from the disease.

NEW YORK MEMO

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

Paragraphs of Interest to Readers of Empire State.

News of All Kinds Gathered From Various Points in the State and So Reduced in Size That It Will Appeal to All Classes of Readers.

Dansville's gold star list now numbers 12. Olean has a six months' supply of beer on hand, local brewers say.

Public funerals in Lockport are prohibited because of prevalence of the influenza epidemic.

Buffalo anticipates that the post office will make that city a stopping point in the New York Chicago aerial mail service.

Some of the churches of North Tonawanda have named committees to greet their soldier members as fast as they return.

Governor Whitman announces the appointment of Frank Richardson of Cambridge as commissioner of narcotic drug control.

Only 169 marriage licenses were issued in Rochester last month, as compared with 258 for the same month of 1917, a decrease of 69.

The town board has closed all schools and churches in the town of Stafford until further notice on account of the Spanish influenza.

There is much discontent in Catalan among business men and other residents over the closing order promulgated by the health bureau officials.

Just how hard the Spanish influenza hit Buffalo during November is indicated by the health department's report, which shows 23,381 cases and 2,328 deaths.

The retail price of milk in Hornell has been increased to 15 cents a quart as a result of the increase of the Dairyman's league for the month of December.

About 35,000 pounds of boys' winter hats were raised by Stephen Juvenile Boy's club contest which closed on Nov. 15.

John R. Davis of Oakfield has been appointed postmaster at Oakfield to succeed Dr. A. F. G. Zurlow.

It is the opinion of Buffalo clergymen that the ex-kaiser should be tried for murder. The topic in several churches was based on "What should be done with the Kaiser?"

Newfane's preserving company has packed this year nearly 60 tons of cherries, 100 tons of squash, 10,000 cases of tomatoes and 5,000 cases each of plums and apples.

Commissioners for nurses who served in war were advocated in addresses at the sessions of the 17th annual convention of the New York State Nurses' association in Rochester.

The Champlain Traction company, under special permission of the public service commission, has reduced from 15 to 10 cents the one-way fare in either direction between Jamestown and Lakewood.

Curtiss factories in Buffalo are not going to close permanently, as has been rumored. They will close to Dec. 16 for inventory.

Five of the physicians of Lyons have advanced their prices for office calls to $1 and upwards, and calls within the village limits to $2, while calls outside the village have been advanced in proportion.

John P. Malloy of Rochester was elected president and Mark Cronin of Buffalo first vice president of the New York state branch of the International Union of Steam and Operating Engineers in convention in Utica.

Garden League of Buffalo, which during the past summer gave out 218 gardens to be worked in various parts of Buffalo, has refunded $431.71 of the $1,500 appropriated for the work, by the Erie county board of supervisors.

New York's board of aldermen have authorized the issuance of $80,000 in special revenue bonds for the erection of a temporary arch of triumph, designed as a tribute to the returning American soldiers.

On her way to work as a section hand on the New York Central railroad, Mrs. Mary Stas, 42 years old, the mother of five children, was instantly killed when run down by a passenger train on the Lake Shore while crossing the tracks at Center street, Ackawanna.

Automobiles caused the death of 31 persons in the streets and highways of New York state last month, as compared with 81 in the same month last year, according to a report made by the National Highway Protective society. Sixty-four of them were killed in New York city and the others in the rest of the state.

General Witherspoon, state superintendent of public works, announces that all freight boats have passed out of the Champlain canal and navigation on that waterway is closed for the season. The actual closing of the canals to navigation the present season will take place at a later date than has been the case in over ten years.

Abandoned canal lands in Schenectady were sold by the state for $330,000. The land involved constituted part of the old Erie canal which was superceded by the new barge canal. Negotiations are under way for the transfer to the various municipalities of the Erie canal lands in the cities of Utica, Syracuse, Rome, Rochester and Buffalo.

Recher morning newspapers, the Democrat and Chronicle and the Herald have increased their retail price to 2 cents a copy. It was announced that with wages and the cost of materials at the high levels to which they have risen it is no longer a sound policy to sell newspapers at lower rates. The afternoon newspapers advanced their prices some time ago.

The force and influence of the New York Woman Suffrage party will be exerted in favor of the passage by congress and ratification by the states of the suffrage amendment to the federal constitution. This procedure was favored in a recommendation submitted by the executive committee to the state committee in connection with the state convention of the party in New York city.

At present the Genesee County chapter of the Red Cross has 1,000 pounds of yarn on hand to be distributed to people who will knit socks and sweaters for soldiers. The quota is 250 pairs of socks and 1,150 sweaters and only a small part of this quota is filled. The chapter is given to the end of January to finish the knit socks and every person who can knit is urged to call at Red cross headquarters to get yarn.

William A. Orr, the new state superintendent of prisons, at a luncheon given in his honor by the National Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor in New York, discussed with representatives of organized labor a program for reorganization of the prison industries of the state. It was decided that the national committee should draw up a program for constructive legislation on prison industries to be presented to the next legislature.

Milk consumers in New York city are compelled to pay approximately $24,000 a day because of the recent increase of one cent a quart in the retail price. Albert Manning of Oliveville, N. Y. secretary of the Dairyman's league admitted in reply to a query by John T. Dooley, assistant district attorney, at a John Doe inquiry into the milk situation instituted by District Attorney Swann in New York. Mr. Manning also estimated that increases in the price of milk had cost New York city consumers about $25,000,000 in the last three years.

An important sale of pure bred Holstein cattle was made recently when E. and M. J. Reed of Oakfield purchased of Gallan & Gillmore four cows and a bull now being cared for on the farm of H. C. Rossmann. The sale included Hobbyholm Bebe Lyons, who produced with ordinary care 400 pounds of milk in seven days and over 7,000 pounds in six months; also Aldercrest Rag Apple Boon, a grandson of the $25,000 Rag Apple Kordyke, the eighth, now owned by Oliver Cabanna of Buffalo and grand son of Fairview Kordyke Boon, a host in late spring, may upset these calculations.

An important sale of pure bred Holstein cattle was made recently when E. and M. J. Reed of Oakfield purchased of Gallan & Gillmore four cows and a bull now being cared for on the farm of H. C. Rossmann. The sale included Hobbyholm Bebe Lyons, who produced with ordinary care 400 pounds of milk in seven days and over 7,000 pounds in six months; also Aldercrest Rag Apple Boon, a grandson of the $25,000 Rag Apple Kordyke, the eighth, now owned by Oliver Cabanna of Buffalo and grand son of Fairview Kordyke Boon, a host in late spring, may upset these calculations.

An important sale of pure bred Holstein cattle was made recently when E. and M. J. Reed of Oakfield purchased of Gallan & Gillmore four cows and a bull now being cared for on the farm of H. C. Rossmann. The sale included Hobbyholm Bebe Lyons, who produced with ordinary care 400 pounds of milk in seven days and over 7,000 pounds in six months; also Aldercrest Rag Apple Boon, a grandson of the $25,000 Rag Apple Kordyke, the eighth, now owned by Oliver Cabanna of Buffalo and grand son of Fairview Kordyke Boon, a host in late spring, may upset these calculations.