"Them Old Cheery Words"

by James Whitcomb Riley

PAP he allus ust to say,
"Chris'mus comes but one't a year!"
Liked to hear him that-a-way,
In his old split-bottomed cheer
By the fireplace here at night—Wood all in—and room all bright, Warm and snug and folks all here;
"Chris'mus comes but one't a
year!"

Me and 'Lize and Warr'n and Jess,
And Eldory home fer two Weeks' vacation; and, I guess, Old folks tickled through and through,
Same as WE was—"Home one't more Fer another Chris'mus—shore!"
Pap 'nd say, and tilt his cheer—
"Chris'mus comes but one't a
year!"

Mostly Pap was ap' to be Ser'ous in his "daily walk."
As he called it; gen'ly
Was no hand to joke er talk.
Fac's is, Pap had never be'n Rugged-like at all—and then Three years in the army had Hepped' to break him pretty bad.

Never FLINCHED! But frost and snow
Hurt his wovnd in winter.
But You bet MOTHER knowed it, though!— Watched his feet, and made him putt

On his flannels; and his knee, Where it never healed up, he Claimed was "well now—mighty near!"
"Chris'mus comes but one't a
year!"

"Chris'mus comes but one't a
year!"
Pap 'nd say and snap his eyes.
Row o' apples sputterin' here Round the hearth, and me and 'Lize

Grackin' hicker-nuts; and Warr'n
And Eldory parchin'-corn;
And whole raft o' young folks
here.
"Chris'mus comes but one't a
year!"

Mother tuk most comfort in Jest a-heppin' Pap: She'd fill His pipe fer him, or his tin O' hard cider; or set still And read fer him out the pile O' newspapers putt on flo Whilse he was with Sherman—
(She Knowed the whole war-history!)

Sometimes he'd git het up some.
"Boys," he'd say, "and you girls, too, Chris'mus is about to come;
So, as you've a right to do,
CELEBRATE it! Lots has died, Same as Him they crucified,
That you might be happy here.
Chris'mus comes but one't a
year!"

Missed his voice last Chris-mus—missed
Them old cheery words, you know.

Mother helt up tel she kissed
All of us—then had to go And break down! And I laughs:
"Here!
Chris'mus comes but one't a
year!"
"Them's his very words," sobbed
she,
"When he asked to marry me."

"Chris'mus comes but one't a
year!"
"Chris'mus comes but one't a
year!"
Over, over, still I hear,
"Chris'mus comes but one't a
year!"
Yit, like him, I'm goin' to smile And keep cheerful all the while:
ALLUS Chris'mus THERE—
And here
"Chris'mus comes but one't a
year!"

Christmas Morning

O lookit, Tommy, Santa come for you and me, But I never heard a single sound when he left that Christmas tree.

Father Mollinger fought the Influenza in 1891. His wonderful prescription in great demand today.
A common-sense treatment which appeals to the reason of intelligent people.

Father Mollinger's 18 original prescriptions books indicate the thousands suffering in the early nineties from influenza.
At the first sign of a cold he advised patients to take his medicine for Coughs, Colds and Influenza.

At bed time he told them to place a heaping tablespoonful of his Flu-herbs in a cupful of scalding hot water and drink it before retiring. This Famous Herb Tea taken hot will cause you to perspire. It carries off the pas-son and allays the fever.
