City Parish News

Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporter

St. Peter and Paul.

Masses on Sunday will be at 6:30, 8:15, 9:30 and high mass at 10:45 o'clock.

A special letter from Bishop Thomas F. Hickey of his appreciation to the priests, and people of the diocese, for the splendid work done in the recent seminary campaign, was read at all the masses on last Sunday by Rev. J. E. Gefell.

Among the soldiers of this parish who have been mustered out service in the past week were: Corp. William Carlin, Private Joseph Schaab and John Kick. At the annual election of officers of the Central Council of the C. M. B. A., held on February 11th, in the basement of our school, Herbert J. Stellwagen was re-elected president of the council, Grand Deputy William J. Berdel installed the officers.

Mr. William J. Berdel was elected president at the annual election of officers of the Men's Federation of Catholic Societies held in St. Joseph's rooms last week.

The funeral of Mrs. Catharine Fischer was held on last Friday morning at 8:30 from her home, 82 Whitney Street, and at 9 o'clock from the church. Interment was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

Holy Redeemer.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock vespers and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will take place in the church. Christian Doctrine for the children will also be held.

The requiem masses this week were for: Marguerite Reinstadler and Constantine Wendelgass.

The funeral of Constantine Wendelgass, who died last Saturday at his home, 1074 Clifford Ave., took place Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. He leaves one son, Andrew J. Wendelgass; three daughters, Mrs. James Lane, Mrs. Edward Bott and Miss Frida Wendelgass. He was a member of St. Jacob's Benevolent Society of this parish and the C. B. L. of St. Michael's Church.

Eustice DeRoller, son of John A., and Minnie DeRoller died at St. Mary's Hospital, aged 8 years. The funeral was held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Besides his parents he leaves three brothers and three sisters.

Wednesday evening the St. Jacob's Society held a smoker.

Wednesday evening the Young Ladies' Sodality held a conference in the church after which they went to their meeting rooms and held a Valentine party.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weber of Joseph Avenue, are rejoicing over the advent of a daughter.

The Young Men's Club of this parish held a luncheon on Tuesday, February 18th.

Sunday will be communion day for the young men of the parish. The girls of this parish are rehearsing for a minstrel show which will be held in the near future.

St. Mary's Church.

At the regular meeting of the Sacred Heart Promoters of St. Mary's Church, the following resolutions were offered, on the death of Miss Jennie Moore, whom we had learned to admire for the gentle, retiring disposition that marked her whole life, and who was called so suddenly from our midst.

It is in death's sad hour that we extend to her sister and friends, the sincere sympathy of loving hearts, and share with them their sad affliction.

Bowing in humble submission to the Divine Will, hoping that God will grant to them such consolation as will alleviate in some degree their profound sorrow, and that the memory of her noble life will remain as a silent and holy influence to her loved ones, long after the spirit has fled to the bosom of the Creator.

Resolved:—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her sister, and that they be spread on the minutes of the League.

Miss Mary T. Kelly
Miss Sadie L. O'Brien
Miss Alice FitzSimons
Committee

Miss Jennie Moore, of No. 125 Gibbs Street, who died on January 9th, 1919, was a person loved by all who knew her on account of her beautiful character and unassuming manner. She was a member of St. Mary's Rosary Society and the League of the Sacred Heart.

Up to the time of her death Miss Moore was a most faithful promoter for the League of the Sacred Heart, both at the Sacred Heart Convent, and then, after it was established in this Church, she became an ardent worker for this parish.

She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Patrick Barrett and two nephews, John and Lawrence Barrett.

Notwithstanding that 80 per cent of its membership have been in the military service during the past eighteen months, the Y. M. C. A. of this church has been able to keep its rooms at 7 South Street open, and began a revival of its activities by holding a card party and social on Thursday evening.
