

hard on Don. with her brother?" asked the detec

As we entered tive. at once, and the molon parch flour- tor vehicles, died in Albany, Congressman Hamilton is $750,000. Binghamton for $750,000 and France contain less fats and more Newburg for $250,000. productione than those of German way the girl turned, to me again.	never shot has father. The will work	Youth's Companien	an effort to have congress appropriate, one mario pounds of the maple The latter require a greater propor-

	to persuade him to be fair."	never shot her father. The will was		ion and stirred with a monte niddle ition of faity substances to enable
,		all in her favor."	Channes in Time's Backoning	Steuben county has an extensive ap and service with a another participation of withstand the rigors of the repair program for its roads and will be the contribution of Cattarau-them to withstand the rigors of the base to numan-Gernian winter.
-	"The doctor?"	Back we went to Trisorton. The	Sa mefort was the Julian styla of	repair program for its roads and will be the control of a taman then to wither and the rights of the
	"No. My father. Don't let him die		reckoning that it prevailed generally	hopes to fairy it out that battantet.
	leaving a will that is unjust."	"You thought young Redbagh took	among the Christian nations and re-
	I had no time to reply, and I could	a revolver," he said. "This is a rifle-	mained undisturbed till the minutes	in the second of not have framed an answer if I tried.	ball. We heard no shot. It was an	had amounted in 1552 to ten complete
	A tall, thin old servant answered her	accident I am convinced that no mur-ring, and I was ushered into a bed-	der was committed. And since the	days, the vernal equinox railing on	It is a long and will build in a second and the sec room where a man lay huddled in a	man is dead. I am ready to admit that	the 11th instead of the 21st of March.	House site at Seneca Falls, will build the legislature permitting any intra-product possessing good technical heap of heddlothes, and a grave, in-	a great injustice was prevented. Don-	This slifting of days has caused great	a 12 room noter increation of weights and measures the succession of the providence to and terminations. Dre
- •	telligent man I had seeh driving about		disturbance by untixing the times of was always a-well- he's dead."	the celebration of Easter, and hence	Governor Smith has signed a bing the transferrer from the super light over dated for
	"You are Byrnes?" he asked.	In a small town like Triverton such	of all the movable feasts, and acrord-	which provides for the birth of an blyman Miller of Genesee and Senator employing the process, and in the
	"Xes."	a case becomes the main topic of con-	ingly Pope Gregory, with the aid of	conduced outside prison what in the knight have introduced a similar builtuing the national economy of ther-
•	"Mr. Redbagh wishes to make his	versation Sleepless, I was in the po-	Clavius, the astronomer, ordained that	state.
-	will. You will need to-"	line stalling at about fire that many	ten days should be deducted from the	( Camp Upton will be the demonstrate it have an amondment to the hard to the
	He glanced at me significantly. He	afternoon when a her came in white	year 1582 by calling what would have	zation camp of the 2/th division, completence alter aborter wide not need to timish the sentence. I	from frightonal and mering under	been the 5th of October according to	losed of former New York National Datavia city charter. [oil, which according to experts will could see that but a spark of life re-	his arm a small riflom	the old calendar, the 15th of October,	Guardsmen. While digging postholes on the compare favorably with the French mained in the shriveled old frame,	"I'll give myself up," he said. "I	1582, by the new one. It was further	Inipponte la fai teat real son, or s s and that spark was going fast.	think I shot Mr. Rudharh although T	ordained that every hundredth year	Wissing of Staney aneather two ne products
	"Write-write-" gasped the sick	didn't mean to do so. I was out after		been appointed attingent of Chief Gir man skeletons, the remains of a male man. "Leave all to Edna, Just a	rabbits. It's fun on a bright, moon-	excepting every fourth hundredth be-	and remained and remained over billing Convertience over (Remarks of States of the second states of the seco	light night. My dog had scared up	ginning with 1600° In this way the	side by side in a sitting position. Act several, and I guess I got to shooting	difference between the civil and natu-	At Mt. Morris the Genesse values cording to those acquainted with In "I wish," said the ex-kaiser, "I feeling of repugnance. I began writ-	ardid. Do not think Till have to should be	ral year will not amount to a day in-	Agriculturists' association says many dian customs these are the skeletons had my coronation robe."
		prison?	3,000 years.	or its members are discouraged and of a chief and his wife, for their lore ( (mrt + and mold it do not the Everybody breathed a sigh of fellef.		Will Guil infining. I hold that chiefe and their source held in his book would be and hundred dollars to his son The	The chief of police looked at me pe-	Obarra Caratullia ?	Yates county people are showing buried in sitting positions while other this storm of fate?" sadly asked his ald, and all the residue of his estate,	The clust of bouce looked at me be-		great enthusiasm over the prospects indiana wore buried lying face down, loonsort.
	after his funeral expenses had been		It is impossible to read every book	or bunning a county nospital as a mol Commissioner of Arriculture C. S. ("That's just what I want it for."
		Benet	you see. You must choose. The im-	morial to soldiers. Wilson announced in Albany that un-insplied the rejeated Bill "It enget
	While I was writing, a young man	be?" he asked.	portant question is, What decides	It has finally been decided to hold der the direction of the council of the result of the state satarad. He was well set-up, a manly	He couldn't have lived inrough the	your choice? Are you reading a certain	the convention of the western New earning and markets plans had been to be a good reigh coac antereu. He was well set-up, a maniy	night	book because you happened to find it	Vort Firemen's seconstion in North TOTA Firemen's association in the informulated for com Dalling the Luroboking young fellow, and there was	"The girl is true to her brother?"	on the table at your elbow when you nothing in his appearance that was	"Yes, and Donald to her."	dropped into the easy chair after your	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. pean corn borer which experts have nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name!" asked the	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with estimated if allowed to spread un-nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod-	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy.	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with estimated if allowed to spread un- but elevator service for about a year, checked would destroy half of the
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated voice, "I am going. Will you	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name!" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert."	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best sellers," or because you hap-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- stimated if allowed to spread un- because of failure of its hydraulic state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000, to return home)—Beatrice was al-
·	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- mated voice, "I am going. Will you make hands?"	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?"	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best sellers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece?	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with sut elevator service for about a year. because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. In this indicate for borer which experts have estimated if allowed to spread un- checked would destroy half of the state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. Aberidy a strict quarantine has ways ap fond of Eau de Cologne: I'd
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr.	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. • Olean people who have been with- but elevator service for about a year. because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec- like to take her some if I knew what
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated voice, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick mam half	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name!" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- but elevator service for about a year because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec- Tonawandas is said to be gaining lady and Montgomery counties, the to subter what to mainted to to spread un- American Officer (getting ready American Officer (getting ready American Officer (getting ready to return home)—Beatrice was al- been placed on large areas in Schenec- like to take her some if I knew what to set for in French Judge
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shaked voice, "I am going. Will you shake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick man half valued himself on his elbow.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name!" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old we field. I might have shot my fa-	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- but elevator service for about a year. the movement to consolidate the much ground, but a quiet current of the determined for bore which experts have estimated if allowed to spread un- the movement to consolidate the much ground, but a quiet current of the determined for the service and the serv
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- mated voice, "I am going. Will you make hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick man half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name!" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther."	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. • Olean people who have been with- iut elevator service for about a year. • Other the set of allowed is a loss of $30,00,- • The movement to consolidate the much ground, but a quiet current of opposition is noted over there. • Other the set of the se
, ,	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated voice, "I am going. Will you shake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick man half subsed himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake hands with you? Go.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old rye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know-I don't know but	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal roday. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. • Olean people who have been with- but elevator service for about a year. because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the to make down and the service a
1	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you islake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick man half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone."	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know-I don't know but. what we'll keep the rife." said the	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal roday. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- but elevator service for about a year. because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec- ing the placed on large areas in Schenec- ing the north of the some if I knew what to be gaining much ground, but a quiet current of opposition is noted over there. Cattaraugus county- dairymen are Cattaraugus county- dairymen are to ways the timesheat invosting to P. J. Roach, state mar- to the some in the seconties. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec- like to take her some if I knew what to set for in FrenchJudge, UNCOMPENSATED OCCUPATION.
1	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick man half valued himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake hands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out wenter-	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old rye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know-I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you are wanted	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontisplece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all.	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. • Olean people who have been with- but elevator service for about a year. because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec- in the movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec- in ground, but a quiet current of opposition is noted over there. Cattaraugus county- dairymen are now milking their cows three times a day. It is stated that they get 15 chester branch of the bureau of mark to show and the bureau of the bureau o
• • •	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated voice, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick man half valued himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake hands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name!" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old rye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know-I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for yon. If is not certain	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal roday. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. • Olean people who have been with- but elevator service for about a year, but elevator service for about a year, checked would destroy half of the state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. • Olean or crop at a loss of $30,000. • Olean or crop at a loss of $30,000. • Olean bord will be on placed on large areas in Schenec- ically and Montgomery counties, the pest having made its appearance along the Mohawk in these counties. • According to P. J. Roach, state mar- now milking their cows three times a day. It is stated that they get 15 chester branch of the bureau of mar- chester branch of the bureau of mar- cost of living?"
•	acthing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- maked volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick mam half unloed himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, aithough foobly. "Shake hands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me onit yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name!" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old Fye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you. If is not certain that it - was your builet, anyway	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? On are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward. "There must be some tender recollec-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- iut elevator service for about a year, because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec- icady and Montgomery counties, the much ground, but a quiet current of opposition is noted over there. Cattaraugus county- dairymen area a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched- ule. Tonawanda so is sold to be gaining a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched- ule. Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. (Niminated To bore which experts have estimated if allowed to spread un- checked would destroy half of the state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of the Ro- wets, on Feb. 1 there were still re- (I don't try. Explaining it isn't
•	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated voice, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick mam half valued himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake hands with you? Go. I thought you bad gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be-	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old rye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know buf: what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll kend for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Or are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the sir best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward.	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- iut elevator service for about a year, because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec- icady and Montgomery counties, the much ground, but a quiet current of opposition is noted over there. Cattaraugus county- dairymen area a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched- ule. Tonawanda so is sold to be gaining a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched- ule. Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. (Niminated To bore which experts have estimated if allowed to spread un- checked would destroy half of the state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. (Already a strict quarantine has state's corn crop at a loss of the Ro- wets, on Feb. 1 there were still re- (I don't try. Explaining it isn't
•	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- mated volce, "I am going. Will you shake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick man half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake hands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good here it left."	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old Fye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. It is not certain that it —was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle."	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward. "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair."	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- iut elevator service for about a year. Olean corn borer which experts have stimated if allowed to spread un- checked would destroy half of the state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Scheneo- looposition is noted over there. Cattaraugus county- dairymen are now milking their cows three times a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched ule. New York city's board of estimate
•	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father." he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you ihake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick man half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake hands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me ont yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good now. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!"	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name!" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old rye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know-I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll kend for you. It is not certain that it was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle."	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward. "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the Tonawandas is said to be gaining much ground, but a quiet current of opposition is noted over there. Cattaraugus county- dairymen are now milking their cows three times a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched- ule. New York city's board of estimate New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- bas appropriated $10,000 for pub- bas ap
•	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father." he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick man half valued himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although foobly. "Shake hands with you? Go. I thought you bad gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!"	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name!" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old rye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll kend for you. It is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handlé." As I look back, remembering the	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward. "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec- iady and Montgomery counties, the pest having made its appearance along the Mohawk in these counties. Cattaraugus county- dairymen area a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched- ule. New York city's board of estimate New York
1	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- maked volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick mam half wined himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, aithough feebly. "Shake hands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me oni yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I-left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to mis ha	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name!" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know bug what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll kend for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Still, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." "As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favarable licht in which I looka	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontisplece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward. "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal.	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- iut elevator service for about a year, because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec- iopposition is noted over there. Cattaraugus county- dairymen area now milking their cows three times a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched- ule. New York city's board of estimated New York city's board of estimated New York city's board of estimated Western New York a total of 783,000, to return home)—Beatrice Loses. American Officer (getting ready state's corn crop at a loss of $30,000, to return home)—Beatrice was al- outer placed on large areas in Schenec- along the Mohawk in these counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- new York city's board of estimated has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- lie improvement, which it is expected, will give employment to thousands of will give the employment to thousands of the to meter it. Mentation that territory to various the to meter it. Mentation that territory to various
•	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- mated volce, "I am going. Will you ishake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick man half wined himself on his elbow. "No!" he said shærply, sithough feebly. "Shake hands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here äll night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fors I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his its meved. Then he sterped mean.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old Fye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. It is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward. "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal.	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- but elevator service for about a year. because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec- Tonawandas is said to be gaining induct ground, but a quiet current of poposition is noted over there. Cattaraugus county- dairymen are now milking their cows three times a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new ached- ule. New York city's board of estimate New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub lic improvement, which it is expected will give employment to thousands of ped from that territory to various Mathematica and 1,257 carloads were ship- ped from that territory to various IMPRACTICABLE THRIFT. The movement to thousands of IMPRACTICABLE THRIFT. The movement to thousands of
•	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you shake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick man half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although foobly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good here it left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his tips moved. Then he stepped moment	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but, what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked m. Donald Redbagh, the harshmess of her father, the bittermes as for the set	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward. "There must he some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal.	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with sut elevator service for about a year. because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenec iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenec iady and Montgomery counties, the pest having made its appearance along the Mohawk in these counties. Cattaraugus county- dairymen are now milking their cows three times a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched ule. New York city's board of estimated has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- lic improvement, which it is expected, will give employment to thousands of County Treasurer Bennett of Yates
3	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you shake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although foobly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to mie his tips moved. Then he stepped mome headly to a large oken cabinet, opped a drawer, took something from it, and	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old rye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet. anyway. Still, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on me that night, the favorable light in which I looked om Donald Redbagh, the harshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. "To you wish me to tell you about	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with iut elevator service for about a year, because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the Tonawandas is said to be gaining much ground, but a quiet current of opposition is noted over there. Cattaraugus county- dairymen are now milking their cows three times a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched- ule. New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- lic improvement, which it is expected, will give employment to thousands of county Treasurer Bennett of Yates county Treasurer Bennet of Yates county refuses to pay the accounts of along in the Loted States was 1.828. THEREFORE BEATRICE LOSES. THEREFORE BEATRICE LOSES. THEREFORE BEATRICE LOSES. American Officer (getting ready to return home)—Beatrice was al- along the Mohawk in these counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- now milking their cows three times the investigator. In charge of the Ro- along the work a total of 783,100 barrels of apples. From Feb. 1 the total holdings of apples in the 544 cold storage county refuses to pay the accounts of along in the United States was 1.828. THEREFORE BEATRICE LOSES. American Officer (getting ready to return home)—Beatrice was al- American Officer (getting ready to return home)—Beatrice was al- Mays so fond of Eau de Cologne; I'd like to take her some if I knew what the to take her some if I knew what the state bar and the state of the Ro- along the Mohawk in these counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- maining in the cold storage plants of apples in the 544 cold storage of apples in the 544 cold storage and the total holdings of apples in the 114ed States was 1.828. The main in the united States was 1.828.
1	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped da drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old rye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know-I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll gend for you. If is not certain that it-was your bullet. anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked on Donaid Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender-I wonder if there was not	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? On are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward. "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. it's Dark. "Do you wish me to tell you about your future husband?"	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- sut elevator service for about a year because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the Tonawandas is said to be gaining ady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenec- iady and Montgomery counties, the pest having made its appearance along the Mohawk in these counties. Cattaraugus county dairymen are a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched- ule. New York city's board of estimate New York city's board of estimate New York city's board of estimate in give employment to thousands of men. County Treasurer Benneit of Yates County refuses to pay the accounts of Superintendent of Highways MCEVO
•	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped da drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked om Donald Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender—I wonder if there was not beinething mere than a bey's chance thot is it all. For I was always a be-	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the sir best seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontisplece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. it's Dark . "Do you wish me to tell you about your future husband?" "I do not. I want to know about the	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- sut elevator service for about a year because of failure of its hydraulic system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the Tonawandas is said to be gaining ady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenec- iady and Montgomery counties, the pest having made its appearance along the Mohawk in these counties. Cattaraugus county dairymen are a day. It is stated that they get 15 per cent more milk by the new sched- ule. New York city's board of estimate New York city's board of estimate New York city's board of estimate in give employment to thousands of men. County Treasurer Benneit of Yates County refuses to pay the accounts of Superintendent of Highways MCEVO
•	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped da drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old rye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know-I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll gend for you. If is not certain that it-was your bullet. anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked on Donaid Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender-I wonder if there was not	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best, seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. "To you wish me to tell you about your future husband?" "Ido not. I want to know about the pest of my present husband."-Car-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- setimated if allowed to spread un- system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- now milking their cows three times, tet investigator, in charge of the Ro- ule. New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- it is arrefs of apples. From Feb. 1 to met on meet it." IMPRACTICABLE THRIFT. "Is Bliggins thrifty?" "Uncreasonably so. He is hoping for a heavy snowstorm so that he represents a decrease of 24.7 per cent won't feel he has wasted the momey
•	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped da drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked om Donald Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender—I wonder if there was not beinething mere than a bey's chance thot is it all. For I was always a be-	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best, seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. "To you wish me to tell you about your future husband?" "Ido not. I want to know about the pest of my present husband."-Car-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- setimated if allowed to spread un- state's corn cop at a loss of $30,000. The movement to consolidate the state's corn cop at a loss of $30,000. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee is dy and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee is dy and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee is dy and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee is dy and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee is dy and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee is dy and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee is dy and Montgomery counties, the county refuses to pay the accounts of segerintendent of Highwars McEvol and the attorney general sustains bim represents a decrease of 24,7 per cont won't feel he has wasted the momey won't feel he has wasted the momey set for a harvy snowstorm as that he set in a shall is for a harvy snowstorm aso that he represents a decrease of 24,7 per can
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped da drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked om Donald Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender—I wonder if there was not beinething mere than a bey's chance thot is it all. For I was always a be-	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best, seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. "To you wish me to tell you about your future husband?" "Ido not. I want to know about the pest of my present husband."-Car-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- setimated if allowed to spread un- system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- now milking their cows three times, tet investigator, in charge of the Ro- ule. New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- it is arrefs of apples. From Feb. 1 to met on meet it." IMPRACTICABLE THRIFT. "Is Bliggins thrifty?" "Uncreasonably so. He is hoping for a heavy snowstorm so that he represents a decrease of 24.7 per cent won't feel he has wasted the momey
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped da drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked om Donald Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender—I wonder if there was not beinething mere than a bey's chance thot is it all. For I was always a be-	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best, seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. "To you wish me to tell you about your future husband?" "Ido not. I want to know about the pest of my present husband."-Car-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- setimated if allowed to spread un- system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- now milking their cows three times, tet investigator, in charge of the Ro- ule. New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- it is arrefs of apples. From Feb. 1 to met on meet it." IMPRACTICABLE THRIFT. "Is Bliggins thrifty?" "Uncreasonably so. He is hoping for a heavy snowstorm so that he represents a decrease of 24.7 per cent won't feel he has wasted the momey
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped a drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked om Donald Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender—I wonder if there was not beinething mere than a bey's chance thot is it all. For I was always a be-	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best, seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. "To you wish me to tell you about your future husband?" "Ido not. I want to know about the pest of my present husband."-Car-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- setimated if allowed to spread un- system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- now milking their cows three times, tet investigator, in charge of the Ro- ule. New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- it is arrefs of apples. From Feb. 1 to met on meet it." IMPRACTICABLE THRIFT. "Is Bliggins thrifty?" "Uncreasonably so. He is hoping for a heavy snowstorm so that he represents a decrease of 24.7 per cent won't feel he has wasted the momey
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped a drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked om Donald Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender—I wonder if there was not beinething mere than a bey's chance thot is it all. For I was always a be-	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best, seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. "To you wish me to tell you about your future husband?" "Ido not. I want to know about the pest of my present husband."-Car-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- setimated if allowed to spread un- system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- now milking their cows three times, tet investigator, in charge of the Ro- ule. New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- it is arrefs of apples. From Feb. 1 to met on meet it." IMPRACTICABLE THRIFT. "Is Bliggins thrifty?" "Uncreasonably so. He is hoping for a heavy snowstorm so that he represents a decrease of 24.7 per cent won't feel he has wasted the momey
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped a drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked om Donald Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender—I wonder if there was not beinething mere than a bey's chance thot is it all. For I was always a be-	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best, seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. "To you wish me to tell you about your future husband?" "Ido not. I want to know about the pest of my present husband."-Car-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- setimated if allowed to spread un- system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- now milking their cows three times, tet investigator, in charge of the Ro- ule. New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- it is arrefs of apples. From Feb. 1 to met on meet it." IMPRACTICABLE THRIFT. "Is Bliggins thrifty?" "Uncreasonably so. He is hoping for a heavy snowstorm so that he represents a decrease of 24.7 per cent won't feel he has wasted the momey
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped a drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked om Donald Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender—I wonder if there was not beinething mere than a bey's chance thot is it all. For I was always a be-	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best, seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. "To you wish me to tell you about your future husband?" "Ido not. I want to know about the pest of my present husband."-Car-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- setimated if allowed to spread un- system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- now milking their cows three times, tet investigator, in charge of the Ro- ule. New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- it is arrefs of apples. From Feb. 1 to met on meet it." IMPRACTICABLE THRIFT. "Is Bliggins thrifty?" "Uncreasonably so. He is hoping for a heavy snowstorm so that he represents a decrease of 24.7 per cent won't feel he has wasted the momey
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped a drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked om Donald Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender—I wonder if there was not beinething mere than a bey's chance thot is it all. For I was always a be-	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best, seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. "To you wish me to tell you about your future husband?" "Ido not. I want to know about the pest of my present husband."-Car-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- setimated if allowed to spread un- system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- now milking their cows three times, tet investigator, in charge of the Ro- ule. New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- it is arrefs of apples. From Feb. 1 to met on meet it." IMPRACTICABLE THRIFT. "Is Bliggins thrifty?" "Uncreasonably so. He is hoping for a heavy snowstorm so that he represents a decrease of 24.7 per cent won't feel he has wasted the momey
	nothing in his appearance that was not pleasing. "Father," he said in a low, well-mod- shated volce, "I am going. Will you imake hands?" With a scream that seemed beyond his waning strength, the sick main half suised himself on his elbow. "No!" he said sharply, although feebly. "Shake bands with you? Go. I thought you had gone." "I know you ordered me out yester- day," said the young man. "I was not here all night. I am going for good new. I wanted to take your hand be- fore I left." "Go!" The young man stood for a moment with bowed head. It seemed to me his the moved. Then he stepped noise- imaly to a large oaken cabinet, opped a drawer, took something from 15, and thrust it in his pocket.	"Yes, and Donald to her." "What's your name?" asked the chief of the frightened boy. "Tom Wynert." "The doctor's son?" "Yes, sir. My father was with Mr. Redbagh, and I was out on the old sye field. I might have shot my fa- ther." "I don't know—I don't know but what we'll keep the rifle," said the chief. "As for you, if you are wanted, we'll send for you. If is not certain that it—was your bullet, anyway. Stil, the weapon is dangerous at night for a boy to handle." As I look back, remembering the impressions made on we that night, the favorable light in which I looked om Donald Redbagh, the barshness of his father, the bitterness of fate, I wender—I wonder if there was not beinething mere than a bey's chance thot is it all. For I was always a be-	dropped into the easy chair after your day's work? Os are you reading it be- cause it is advertised as "one of the six best, seliers," or because you hap- pened to like the frontispiece? The choice of books means a great deal today. No matter how much time you spend on reading, there is much that must be left unread. Be sure you choose wisely, since you haven't time for all. Looking Backward . "There must be some tender recollec- tions about that lock of hair." "There must be or I would not have kept it all these years. But who gave it to me?"-Louisville Courier-Journal. "To you wish me to tell you about your future husband?" "Ido not. I want to know about the pest of my present husband."-Car-	Tonawanda on July 29 and 30. Olean people who have been with- setimated if allowed to spread un- system, are getting impatient. The movement to consolidate the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties, the been placed on large areas in Schenee iady and Montgomery counties. According to P. J. Roach, state mar- now milking their cows three times, tet investigator, in charge of the Ro- ule. New York city's board of estimate has appropriated $10,000,000 for pub- it is arrefs of apples. From Feb. 1 to met on meet it." IMPRACTICABLE THRIFT. "Is Bliggins thrifty?" "Uncreasonably so. He is hoping for a heavy snowstorm so that he represents a decrease of 24.7 per cent won't feel he has wasted the momey