Early Irish Culture.
The evidences of early and medieval culture in Ireland are a multitude of beautiful things, classics of literature, but likewise wonders of creative art. Thus at Cong Abbey, where sleep many of Ireland's ancient dead, and among them Rory O'Connor, the last king, there is an exquisite cross with gold traceries and delicate beauty of silver and copper and enamel and bronze, a proof of the civilization built up within Ireland long before the Normans crossed to her shores. Such instances might be multiplied.

Glorious Climate of Tasmania.
Tasmania is supposed to be the healthiest spot in the British empire and this character got a great testimonial some years ago. A young officer of a British shipping line was given up by the London doctors at the age of 21 and went to Tasmania to die, the company granting him a pension. Instead of promptly dying he drew that pension for 83 years, dying in Tasmania recently at the great age of 104.

Mends Granite Ware.
The government suggests we economize on kitchen utensils. To mend a hole in granite ware work a piece of putty with perfectly soft, then take a piece of the putty large enough to cover the hole and put one piece on either side of the metal, pressing together inside and out, smoothing down the edges. Place the vessel in a slow oven and bake until the putty is a deep brown. For containing water the vessel will be as good as new.

To Remove Paint.
Paint stains that are not fresh and yet have not entirely hardened can be softened by moistening them with ammonia and sprinkling them with a little turpentine. Roll the fabric up for fifteen or twenty minutes or soak it for several hours if necessary and then wash it with warm water and soap and hang it out in the air to remove the turpentine odor.

Clay and Cork for Insulation.
A new heat insulating material, composed of a mixture of a special clay and cork, has been discovered by a Norwegian engineer. The clay and cork mixture is burned and the result is the formation of a very light substance that is said to be eminently suitable for all heat insulating purposes.—Indianapolis News.

Last Word in War Vessels.
Superdreadnought is a name given to vessels of the dreadnought type. The displacement is 25,000 tons or more. The speed attained may be twenty-five knots or sea miles (a sea mile is 2,000 yards), and the main battery consists of guns of 13.5 inches caliber or better. A superdreadnought is the last word in naval architecture.

Tight Lacing.
A New York lady while visiting in the West had some experience with a cyclone. While asleep at a friend's, the house was blown down and the lady planned to the earth by a raft. It was supposed she was crushed, but when they dug her out she opened her eyes and sleepily murmured: "Jane, I feel a little uncomfortable; I unfasten my corsets."

Evolution of a Happy Thought.
Mark Twain's favorite example of a man who was busy for keeps was the proverbial one-armed paper hanger with hives. Eureka, we begin to see a light. You've heard about "as busy as a bee." Well, isn't it simple; hives, bee—see? Vaudeville stuff.—Indianapolis Star.

Fruit and Insects.
Choice fruits, especially grapes, may often be protected from insect pests by the use of paper bags placed around the bunches and securely fastened by twine to the supporting shoot or cane. Bags may be put in place as soon as the blossoms have fallen.

Drowning the Fly.
A shooting fish in the East Indies has a hollow cylindrical beak. When it sees a fly on plants that grow in shallow streams it ejects a single drop of water, which knocks the fly into the tide.—Chicago Journal.

Greatest Poetry.
A sunny, cheerful view of life, resting on truth and fact, co-existing with practical application ever to make things, men and self better than they are—this is the true, heartfelt poetry of existence.—Robertson.

To Wash a Flag.
If you fear that colors will run (which is likely in a cotton flag) wash it in gasoline and soap. Melt soap in a little water, add it to the gasoline and put in the flag. Rinse in clear fluid and hang up to dry without wringing.

A Quick Freeze.
In freezing ice cream remember that time will be saved if you do the freezing in a warm place, as the more rapidly the ice melts the more quickly the ice cream or sherbet will be frozen.

Daily Thought.
No sadder proof can be given by a man of his own littleness than disbelief in great men.—Carlyle.

Nazareth Hall Academy To Open Tennis With East High.

East High racquet wielders will get under way for the first match of the season Saturday afternoon, when they will play the Nazareth tennis team on the Cobb's Hill courts. The Catholic boys have not enough talent for a baseball team, but the men on its tennis squad are out to make up for this.

Lieutenant "Midge" Carroll Is Welcomed Home From France.

A dinner of welcome was given to Lieutenant Francis H. Carroll, of No. 383 1-2 Troup street, in the Powers Hotel on Thursday evening. Lieutenant Carroll—"Midge", he is called by his friends—reached Rochester a week ago after serving nearly two years with the Eleventh Engineering Corps in France.

Assistant District Attorney William F. Love was called on to speak on "Patriotism," and he took advantage of his topic to tell what Rochester thought of the two Rochester men who were among the first to go. Charles M. Edwards talked on "Highway Affairs"—in this case the highway life—and Perry Filkins spoke on "Prohibition." "Noise" was the outburst of Charles A. Carruth. Lieut. Carroll closed the list of speakers with an explanation of his idea of "Peace" after two years overseas.

Don't Worry.
Rise above small things. The woman who lets small things worry her will be completely undone the first time she meets with a really big problem. It is disintegrating to your mental and nervous condition, not to mention your physical condition, to worry. You need not be resigned to fate nor slip your troubles as the old friend duck's back throws water. But you can meet troubles with a will to conquer them or adjust them—and after that "they should worry," but not you.—Exchange.

Permanent Colors.
Ancient Egyptians had a marvelous knowledge of colors, and they understood fully what colors would last. In the Egyptian papyrus the ground colors are as good as ever they were. The Egyptians worked their outlines in lampblack, used clay for their whites, ferruginous earths for their reds, ochres for their yellows, and for greens they used peruvian green jasper or mixed blue carbonate of copper with ochre. All these colors are permanent.

Relative Value of Milks.
The fat globules of goats' milk are so small that cream rises very slowly. This quality, however, gives to the milk a uniform richness not possessed by cows' milk. There are now several condensed milk factories using goats' milk, which is condensed and sold for infant feeding. Many thousands of infants are compelled to live during their first few months on condensed cows' milk, and it is not the best food for their stomachs.

No Such Word as Fail.
There is a difference between not succeeding and failing. The one is blind; the other is only a temporary hindrance. If you persevere in spite of not succeeding, if you start again and not on the knowledge you have gained by your slip, it will not work you lasting injury. It is only when you surrender that you are really beaten. There is no such word as "fail" to one who will not give up.

Humor in the Classroom.
Ethel, who was ten years old, was studying her reader, and learned that fish are pined in brine before they are dried and prepared for sale. After explaining that brine is very salt water, the teacher asked why the fish were placed in it. Ethel's face was illuminated with sudden understanding, and she promptly replied: "Because they are used to salt water."

Power of Imagination.
To those who see only with their eyes, the distant is always indistinct and little, becoming less and less as it recedes, till utterly lost; but to the imagination, which thus reverses the perspective of the senses, the far off is great and imposing, the magnitude increasing with the distance.—Mrs. Jameson (Studies).

Unicorn.
The unicorn is a fabulous animal with the body of a horse but of larger size, and with one horn of 1½ to 2 cubits in length on its forehead, perfectly straight, with a white base, black middle, and red tip.

Immaculate Conception.

George Weinmann and Miss Elizabeth Cassidy, for several years a saleswoman for E. W. Edwards & Son, were married on Wednesday morning by Rev. A. M. O'Neill, rector of this church. The attendants were Cornelius Cassidy, brother of the bride, and Miss Laura Decker. The entire party went by automobile to North Adams, Mass., to visit the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Weinmann will live in LeRoy.

Big Business Is Coming.

Are you awake to that fact? Are you prepared for one of the many responsible positions which will be opened to those who are ready for them in the early fall? Business will be the greatest this country has ever known. The demand for trained office help will be unprecedented.

The Rochester Business Institute can give you a first-rate preparation. If you start soon you will be ready to take a position in the late fall or early winter, the very best possible time. You can register for any courses Monday, May 19. Call up the Rochester Business Institute, 172 Clinton Avenue South for full information.—Adv.

ACADEMY PLANTS TREES FOR TWO DEAD SOLDIERS

Two trees were planted on May 2nd by Nazareth Hall Academy pupils to perpetuate the memory of two soldiers dead who were formerly students at the school, Pierre Meisch, who died in France, and Edward Bennett, who was killed in the battle of Chateau Thierry, on June 13th. The pupils gathered on the playground at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when a patriotic program was given, after which the trees were planted.

The tree in memory of Mr. Meisch was named and planted by Arthur Creegan, a nephew of the deceased soldier, and will be known as the Liberty Maple; the one in memory of Mr. Bennett was named and planted by Charles Jensen, a former classmate of the dead hero, and will be known as the Victory Elm. Mr. Bennett was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett, of 4 Wolff street. He was a student at Cathedral High School when he enlisted on April 17, 1917, together with Whitman, McGinnis and Clarke.

ST. ALOYSIUS GUILD WILL HOLD CARD PARTY ON MAY 22.

Arrangements for the eighth annual card party of St. Aloysius Guild were made Wednesday afternoon at the regular meeting of the society at St. Mary's Boys Orphan Asylum. The affair will be held at the Genesee Valley Club on the afternoon of May 22.

The guild, of which Mrs. P. H. Murray is president, operates to provide clothing for the boys of the asylum. It meets twice a month to sew for that organization and holds an annual card party, the proceeds of which are devoted to the same cause.

Rochester at Home.

Rochester will play with Jersey City on May 18, the 19 and 20th. With Newark on the 21, 22, 23 and 24th (two games).
