

BLOUSE IN VOGUE

Popular Garment Back in Favor and in Many Colors.

Large Black Knotted Cravat Adds Parisian Effect and Embroideries Are Attractive.

It is not a very long time since a woman was never without a dozen chemise blouses...

But now the tailored suit is no longer in disrepute; it is returning with victory...

How could blouses fail to take on new life with this occurrence? They come in dozens...

At Paquin's the hues and embroideries of these blouses are of sensational originality...

BE PRETTY IN YOUR KITCHEN

This morning dress of blue chambray piped in white linen is simply made and very inexpensive...

THE MANY SHADES OF BROWN

Color is a Prime Favorite in Paris—Stenciled Embroidery Touched Up With Floss Silks.

In Paris le dernier cri is brown in all shades—red brown, nut brown, pale golden brown...

AIRY GOWN OF PEACHBLOOM

An adorable little frock of peach-bloom shade in taffeta and chiffon with airy ruffles...

CLOTHING FOR THE KIDDIES

Cotton Wash Dresses Are Favored in Preference to Linen, Which is Expensive This Year.

For children's wash dresses cotton ramie, chambray, gingham, cross-bar batiste, voile, dotted swiss and organdy are all to be found...

Ribbons play a peculiarly interesting part in a child's wardrobe at all times...

This season ribbons are used as an embellishment for dresses, as a trimming, as an accessory of dress...

Very tailored effects in little dresses are trimmed only with pipings and cuffs...

Wool embroidery on silk is a very effective trimming, both for dresses and hats.

Valenciennes lace is, of course, just coming into popular favor again and is much in evidence on little girls' dresses...

USE FOR DISCARDED BLOUSES

Crepe de Chine and Georgette Garments May Easily Be Converted Into Camisoles.

When the crepe de chine and georgette blouses have outlived their original usefulness they are not always ready for the refuse heap...

MODES OF THE MOMENT

Many little children appear charming in pure yellow frocks.

Sweaters have adopted the flared openwork design in silk or wool.

A knitted sweater dress with a knitted hat is current for tennis.

The more elaborate evening gown is often deeply fringed with jet.

Narrow patent leather belts hold in the front fullness of the cape.

Cretonne Garden Apron.

MAORIS BACK FROM WAR, HAVE TRIBAL MEMORIAL

Battalion Maintained at Full Strength Entirely by Voluntary Enlistment.

The battalion of Maoris, New Zealand aborigines, who fought in the Gallipoli campaign and afterward in France...

The acting prime minister, Sir James Allen, told them: "You Maoris hold a proud position."

Great quantities of mutton, beef, pork and other food had been baked in earthen ovens for the occasion.

The tangle was a scene of much emotion. The soldiers sat by tribes, cheered by their chiefs...

"I am Swiss, and the French hotel workers don't want any Swiss employees round their hotels."

BISHOP PITIES BEGGAR

Has Shelter Built for Legless Mendicant.

Taking pity on a legless mendicant, who for many years has occupied a place outside St. Barnabas cathedral, Nottingham, England...

The bishop's act, telegraphs a London correspondent, has caused much commotion and interest in the neighborhood.

SHARK SKIN "POKE"

Man Who Was to Go in Search of Gold Made It.

Whiling away a few dull moments at San Francisco before the departure of the old schooner Casco...

Lofdash was occupied nearly all day in skinning the fish. His mates were derelict of what use the skin could be...

Mr. and Mrs. Tracey Baker, who live on Desolation, near Okinoh, Ore., had a thrilling experience one night recently...

Boy Foils Robbers.

Eight Chinese robbers attacked Sing Hop, a wealthy Chinese shirt manufacturer, in his factory in San Francisco...

While this was going on his twelve-year-old son, Sing Fu, slipped out of the place and summoned Policeman John Floyd...

KANSANS WOULD AGREE

Soldier Says Wheat Belt is God's Country.

The effects of the war may think a Kansas farmer to tell in a few words where the famous "God's country" is located.

Mrs. Darlene Newby of the Red Cross service in Kansas City found out the exact location of the famous land.

To find a ring that she lost 15 years ago was the good luck of Miss Emma Lelsnering of Danville, Va.

Identification. "Why do you insist on calling the seventeen-year locust a holshiek?"

Pardonable Suspicion. "Do you think the ex-kaiser ought to be tried?"

SWISS PUT OUT OF PARIS HOTELS

Forced to Give Places to Heroes of War.

FIGHTERS ORGANIZE UNION

Under Threats of Disturbances Employers Had to Give Way and Clear Out All Foreigners From Their Places—Fear Prices Will Be Raised So High That Foreign Visitors Will Stay Away.

After a three months' campaign set afoot by French hotel workers to have all French hotels run by a purely French personnel...

Schwenter is one of the best known hotel managers in Europe. He was put in to manage the Meurice when it opened 13 years ago...

"I am Swiss, and the French hotel workers don't want any Swiss employees round their hotels."

"In justice to myself, however, I wish it to be known that all my men who have been demobilized have been reinstated in their old places...

Following Mr. Schwenter's move, all other hotel managers in Paris not of French nationality have resigned.

The same state of things applied on a bigger scale to all classes of hotel workers—cooks, kitchen hands, porters, bellboys, waiters, etc.

Does Wood Burning Pay?

Investigations by the agricultural department show that one standard cord of well-seasoned hickory, oak, beech, birch, hard maple, ash, elm, locust or cherry wood is approximately equal to one ton of anthracite coal.

Hymns Mention Bicyclists.

One of the effects of the war is an increase in the popularity of hymn singing and practical demonstrations of the best tunes and how to get the most out of them have been held in some of the London churches.

What Happened to Kitty.

Grandma had come for a long visit and mother went to the city for a week, leaving the children in grandma's care.

Common Sense View.

"Do you know what is meant by bolshevism?" asked the contentious man.

Still at War.

Willis—Do you think we are going to have any trouble with the demobilization?"

Get Ring Lost 15 Years.

To find a ring that she lost 15 years ago was the good luck of Miss Emma Lelsnering of Danville, Va.

Identification. "Why do you insist on calling the seventeen-year locust a holshiek?"

Pardonable Suspicion. "Do you think the ex-kaiser ought to be tried?"

Scrap Book

WAS JUST WHAT SHE WANTED

Furniture Attendant Had No Trouble Selling That Particular Sofa to the Young Lady.

The fair young thing drifted into the furniture shop like a motor-bus in wet weather.

An attendant stepped forward with a winning smile. "I—er—want—er—sofa," she muttered coyly.

"Excuse me, miss," asked the wise young man, "but have you a sweetheart?"

She blushed red and yet more red, and nodded violently. "And is he bashful?"

"Yes," she replied, stirred at the recollection of her wrongs; "and he sits right at the other end of the sofa from me."

"Ah, indeed! Well, here is the very thing for you." "That? It's broken, surely! Why, it is shaped like the letter 'V'?"

"That is our specialty. We call it the 'Cupid Slide' sofa. Try one. That young man will no longer be able to sit at the opposite end. He'll meet you half-way."

She bought one on condition it was to be delivered before 8 p. m. that evening.

Tortoise Days.

According to Captain Ogilvie of the British army, who lectured recently in London on the subject of Macedonia, the animal which is to be found in more parts of the country than any other is, perhaps, the tortoise.

The tortoise is seen so rarely in its native hedge or crawling about the orchard that the instantaneous popularity of the animal—according to the captain—was the British Tommy with the Macedonian front need not be doubted.

Investigations by the agricultural department show that one standard cord of well-seasoned hickory, oak, beech, birch, hard maple, ash, elm, locust or cherry wood is approximately equal to one ton of anthracite coal.

French Writer Has Novel Idea to Enable Soldiers to Cross Streams Not Too Deep.

Doctor Nadal, writing in the Journal de Médecine de Bordeaux, urges training soldiers to walk through a running stream and walk entirely submerged for certain stretches.

Historic Battleship.

Possibly a majority of the Staten Islanders passing up and down the bay recently did not recognize a historic naval vessel moored for several days off Tompkinsville.

Nothing Large Enough.

The rookies were in line, waiting to be issued some clothing, and the exceedingly fat top sergeant had just asked for a blouse.

Imaginary Cheer.

It was a fashionable bridge luncheon.

"Have you a strong imagination?" asked the hostess.

Every lady said she had. "Just imagine, then, that you are drinking a cocktail. It will do you quite as much good and there won't be any bad after effects."

The Reason. "I see where the entente are considering cutting up Turkey."

"Well, why not? This is the entente's thanksgiving day."

LAND WHERE DEAD MEN DWELL

(The following poem was written by Lieut. John D. Cosgrove before he left for France. He was killed in action.)

I wandered among the graves one day. In the land where the dead men dwell; And sorrow seemed leagues away.

The roses red were there in bloom. In the land where the dead men dwell; And the lilies white in the twilight gloom.

I saw no sin and I saw no strife. In the land where the dead men dwell; And no one wept at the woes of life.

At rest in their narrow cell. Then why should one ever come to weep In the land where the dead men dwell?

ENTIRE TOWN STIRRED UP

Peculiar Dispute Has Caused Something Closely Approaching Civil War Out at Monterey.

A returned Californian brings word of the distressing condition of civil war now existing in Monterey. It appears that the municipality is about to put on a pagant, and that one talented author alleges that another talented author stole his best stuff.

"That staircase scene in my play," said the complainant, "with the kings and queens and everybody a-winding down, would have been a knockout.

Wherupon the other author has replied with aspersions and all Monterey has taken sides.

"But the worst," says the returned Californian, "is that the town plumber has taken sides. You call him up nowadays and you say:

"Hurry up here. My water pipes are all stopped up!" And he listens unemotionally and then he says: "That's all right. But how do you stand in this staircase scene matter? And if you don't stand the way he stands your pipes stay stopped. It's unendurable."

COULD MARCH UNDER WATER

French Writer Has Novel Idea to Enable Soldiers to Cross Streams Not Too Deep.

Doctor Nadal, writing in the Journal de Médecine de Bordeaux, urges training soldiers to walk through a running stream and walk entirely submerged for certain stretches.

Historic Battleship.

Possibly a majority of the Staten Islanders passing up and down the bay recently did not recognize a historic naval vessel moored for several days off Tompkinsville.

Nothing Large Enough.

The rookies were in line, waiting to be issued some clothing, and the exceedingly fat top sergeant had just asked for a blouse.

Imaginary Cheer.

It was a fashionable bridge luncheon.

"Have you a strong imagination?" asked the hostess.

Every lady said she had. "Just imagine, then, that you are drinking a cocktail. It will do you quite as much good and there won't be any bad after effects."

The Reason. "I see where the entente are considering cutting up Turkey."

"Well, why not? This is the entente's thanksgiving day."