City Parish News

Interesting Budget of Happenings
Gathered by Our City Reporter

St. Peter and Paul.
Masses on Sunday will be held at 6:30, 8:15, 9:30 and high mass at 10:45 o'clock.
It was announced on last Sunday, that Sunday school will begin on next Sunday, after the summer vacation and all children from the 5th grade up are to attend Sunday school.
Sunday will be communion day for the young ladies' of the parish. The members of the Sodality will attend in a body at the 8:15 o'clock mass.
School collection will be taken up at all the masses on Sunday. Among the returned soldiers who registered in the Mayor's office in the City Hall this week was Corporal O. G. Reiter of 41 Darien street, one of the ushers of this church.

The annual L.C.B.A. reception at St. Ann's Home will be held on next Wednesday afternoon, September 24th, at 3 o'clock. All members and friends are invited to attend and help make the old people happy.
Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gefell of 90 Culver Road celebrated the Fiftieth or golden anniversary of their wedding at a solemn high mass which was celebrated by their three sons on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. The celebrant of the mass was Rev. J. Emil Gefell, Ph. D., pastor of this church, assisted by Rev. Joseph Gefell of Wayland and Rev. John Gefell of Cohocton. A large number of clergy attended the services. After the mass a dinner was served at their home to the relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. John Gefell were married in Attica, N. Y., and came here in 1870 having resided here continuously since that time. Of their eleven children four are living. Mrs. Frank Sellmeyer of 90 Culver Road and the Rev. J. Emil Gefell, Rev. Joseph H. Gefell and Rev. John F. Gefell, all three sons having entered the priesthood. Mr. and Mrs. Gefell are known to many of the older residents of this city, particularly those living on the west side of the river in St. Peter and Paul's parish of which Mr. Gefell and his bride of fifty years have been members since coming to Rochester.

ST. MICHAEL'S.
The order of masses during the fall and winter months will be as follows: 6:30, 7:30, children's mass at 9 and high mass at 10:30 o'clock.
Sunday at all the masses the extra collection will be taken up for the decorating and electric lighting of the church.
The requiem masses for this week were for Jacob and Sophia Gesner and Joseph Bortfeldt.
The bans of matrimony were announced Sunday between Walter Slayton and Lucille Schirmer.
The marriage of Mr. Arthur Schults to Miss Marie Long took place Tuesday morning at 8:30.
The Sacrament of Confirmation will be administered by Bishop Hickey in this church some time next month.
The Clematis Pedro Club was entertained Monday evening at the home of Miss Eleanor Winterhalter, of 517 Remington St. Prizes were won by the Misses Irene Heberger, Gertrude Kern, Christine Staub and Eleanor Winterhalter. The next hostess will be Miss Elizabeth Thein of 110 Flower Street.

St. Andrew's Church

Last Sunday morning a large number of the Holy Name Society received Holy Communion in a body. Father Crowley preached the sermon his text being, "Seek First the Kingdom of God". The object of this Society is clean speech.
Tuesday evening meeting of the Sacred Heart.
A very pretty rainbow wedding took place Thursday morning at 9 o'clock the contracting parties being Anthony N. Masucci and Felice M. Paduano of 41 Jackson street, the ceremony being performed by Father Eckl, assisted by Father Hart and Father Florack. Mrs. Dr. Schuhart presided at the organ in the absence of Miss Daisy Streb, who, with her sister Frankie is sojourning in the Mountains.
Next Sunday at the 7:30 o'clock mass the young ladies' of the parish will receive Holy Communion.

St. Joseph's.
Sunday morning, September 20th, at the 7:30 o'clock mass, Ladies' Auxiliary 43, Knights of St. John, will accompany the Sir Knights to Holy Communion. All are invited to be present.
The children of St. Joseph's Orphanage had a picnic Tuesday, on a farm in Hildorf Avenue. It not only gave the children a good time, but afforded the friends of the institution a chance to see the 35-acre tract, which has been bought by the church, to which the orphanage may be removed at some future time.

Blessed Sacrament.

The marriage of Miss Beatrice LaCour to Frank J. Brown took place Thursday morning in this Church. Miss Madeline LaCour, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Dr. W. Paul Brown, of Mount Vernon, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were George Hanlon and E. J. LaCour, brother of the bride.
A nuptial high mass was celebrated, with Rev. Father Quinn as celebrant, assisted by Rev. Thomas F. Connors, rector of the church. In the sanctuary were the Rev. A. M. O'Neill rector of the Immaculate Conception church; Rev. Patrick O'Beirne, of Texas; Rev. Father Kilahey and Rev. Father Smith. G. F. La-LaCour and W. J. LaCour, brothers of the bride, were masters of ceremonies.

Boy's Hats and Caps Here to Go with the New Fall Suit

This Boy's Store does not confine its efforts to suits and overcoats—not by any means. It makes its business to see that the boy has all the furnishings such as blouses, shirts, shirtwaists, suspenders, neckwear and hats and caps. Mothers particularly will find this a great help and convenience when selecting the suit or overcoat, as these other necessary articles may be seen and selected at the same time.

There is a wealth of smart fall headgear here for boys. In our large line embraces practically all the styles made expressly for boys. For the small boys there are large and small shapes in velours in a variety of colors, such as dark green, black, nutria and brown. Also the small round polo shape in colored plushes. Prices are from $1.50 to $5.00.

Boys from 8 to 16 who prefer the cashmeres or tweed effects in hat or cap will find an excellent assortment here—any desired shape. Prices are from $1 to $3. Second Floor
