TID-BITS

We are the Obnoxious Weeds, and the Birds in their migration sustain High we hold our Heads, and our Life giving properties maintain.

Over the Snow Plains, and the killing Frost of the Arctic Night, Where the survival of the fittest holds sway, with undisputed right.

The Marshes and the Ponds, we Paint with Sylvan Green, Where the Water Fowl seek cover, when they hear the Eagle's Scream.

While the Fish-hawk awaits his Prey, on the Rocky Ledge, And the Wild Duck is diving, for tender sprouts of Sedge.

Oh Braddock's Bay, where the Wild Birds rest, Aquatic Paradise, No more on Salmon Creek, is seen the Swan in graceful pose.

The Wild Geese just describe a circle, take up their V and Soar, To the Land of the Northern Lights, far beyond Niagara's Roar.

We travel by the wayside, and for you a pretty sight, The song birds we attract, and stay them in their flight.

From the Land of the Palmetto, as Homeward they return, Breaking forth with songs of gladness, from their enforced sojourn.

Ourelement is the Wild Wood's Tangle, far from Haunts of men, Where the Woodbine alternates, with a Wild-Grass Arbor now and then.

Entwined with Honeysuckle, Buttercup and Daisies a Fur below For the Cat-Bird, we make a secluded Bungalow.

The Birds voice their gratitude, for the diversity of Seed, With chantive notes of Happiness, as they flit from weed to weed.

Msgr. Casimiro Casimiri, The Famous Conductor
 Accompanies the Vatican Choirs On Their American Tour.

The great conductor of the Vatican Choirs who comes to Convention Hall on Thursday night, September 25th, the Right Reverend Monsignor Casimiro Casimiri, is considered by many good judges who have been closely in touch with his work as probably the most sympathetic leader of great musical organization that the world has at the present time. He has a sense of musical values and of musical combination that is unerring, but above all he has the power of bringing in others every scintilla of musical expression which they possess. This is one of the rarest gifts, as every musician knows, and his native talent has been developed to a marvelous degree in the opportunities afforded for its expression in Rome.

Foreign visitors with musical taste who have had the privilege of listening to singers under his direction render the great music of The Holy Week particularly, have come away positively enraptured with his work. Even the Romans themselves, after all these generations of accustomedness to great, good music, have been aroused to the highest pitch of admiration for Monsignor Maestro Casimiri's works. He is not only maintaining the Roman traditions in matters musical, but the feeling is that he is adding to their prestige and giving renewed distinction to ecclesiastical music.

It has been confidently declared that his musical genius represents an oasis in present day music. He stands for the conservative genius of great old musical numbers.

The American public is indeed to be congratulated on the fact that it is to have an opportunity to hear these well trained singers under such eminent direction. There is no doubt that the foundation of a real musical education might be laid by acquaintance with the successful efforts of the great Roman choirs, whose lone traditions and present day training and admirable direction make them probably the best exponents of what is greatest in genuine music in our day.

Eugenie Bonaparte, former Empress of France, is now in the 94th year of her age.

IS YOUR CHILD UNDER WEIGHT?
 Mothers May Secure Important Facts Free.

Growing children should be up to a certain standard weight. Roughly speaking, they should weigh as many pounds as they are inches tall until they are about six years old. After that the weight of the child should increase in a certain proportion to its height.

A detailed table showing the proper weight for children will be sent free of charge to any mother who will write to Father John's Medicine, Lowell, Mass., requesting this information. This offer is made in order that mother's may realize the value of Father John's Medicine as a tonic flesh builder for their children.

Thousands of mothers use it regularly in their homes and find that their children gain weight steadily while taking this old-fashioned, family medicine. If your child is under weight, he is in serious danger. Do not take chances. Begin giving Father John's Medicine at once.

Remember it is safe for children because it does not contain alcohol or dangerous drugs. It has a history of more than 60 years of success.

CHILD GAINED 20 POUNDS
 In a recent letter, Mrs. W. V. Smith, of Springfield, Ohio, says, "My youngest girl was always sickly. We had doctor for a long time but nothing did her any good so I decided to try Father John's Medicine. She has gained over twenty pounds in weight since she has been taking the Medicine. She is a big girl now and I also give it to my other children and they are big, healthy children. I would not be without Father John's Medicine in my house."

Styles May Come and Styles May Go

but the Colonial style in dining-room furniture apparently goes on forever. You may buy a Colonial dining suite of standard design in either oak or mahogany with the assurance that it will be as good style fifteen years hence as it is today.

For many small dining rooms where one wishes to use mahogany furniture, the Sheraton and Adam styles cannot be improved upon to give a light and graceful effect without causing the room to appear overcrowded. We show Sheraton and Adam suites of this character in genuine mahogany as low as $150.00 and $175.00 for the complete suite.

Our showing of dining-room furniture embraces suites in Colonial, Mission, Sheraton, Adam, William and Mary, Queen Anne, Heppelwhite and Charles II design.
