

PRINCESS AS CUPID

Princess and Major were two large and black cavalry horses. Had they not loved each other only as horses...

CUBANS FOND OF JEWELRY

American Dealers Are Advised to Take Advantage of the Situation. The United States department of commerce and industry has issued a bulletin...

FRANCE OUR SOLDIERS KNEW

Prodigality Astonished Shopkeepers, but They Turned It to Good Use. When we first arrived in France the currency seemed more like soap wrappers...

GET KNOWLEDGE OF COUNTRY

Japanese School Children Go on Outings as Part of Their System of Education. In Japan beyond all other lands, the whole world goes outing...

SOME REALLY SMALL THINGS

Scientists Report Discoveries That May Be Classed as of More or Less Interest. The scientist has at last discovered the very smallest things in the world...

BRILLIANTS

The hen is a liberal fowl; she gives a peck when she takes a grain. There are roads to riches, but many of us travel in the wrong direction...

SEES SIGNS IN EVERYTHING

Average Serbian Superstitious to a Degree That to Westerners Seems Almost Incomprehensible. The deity of the Serbs is said to be full of superstitions...

SCRAPS

After all, the easiest way to do a thing is to do it right. It is a pleasure to meet a man or woman these days who has no fault to find...

Started Mussel Industry

Mussel culture in France where it is carried on more extensively than anywhere else, originated so far back as 1235, when an Irish ship was wrecked near La Rochelle...

Trapping Moles

Owing to the indefatigable advertising methods of many molochin firms, the humble mole is now recognized as the foremost British fur-bearing animal...

Getting Ball for Moses

It was at the Greek theater, Miriam, sister of Moses, alias Ruth St. Denis, was dancing the Israelites from the Red sea to the wilderness...

Armadillo as a Pet

In Argentina a common household pet is the small armadillo called mullito, which is only about 15 inches long...

High Buildings

The five highest buildings are: Woolworth building, 265 feet; Metropolitan tower, 700 feet; Singer building, 612 feet...

Values Increasing

"Do you know that I feel like 30 cents?" said Jack to Ebel. Then Ebel sweetly smiled and commented: "Well, well, everything seems to have gone up since the war..."

Winning the Jury

Some years ago an Irish attorney in Cincinnati named John McGrath sued a saloonkeeper for $200 in a square's court...

Obeying Instructions

As he weighed out the sugar the grocer's boy whistled lustily. "Don't you know that it is very rude to whistle while you are waiting on a lady?" said the elderly customer...

They're Practical Men

"Would you call a successful author one who makes from $10,000 to $15,000 a year, but will be forgotten 12 months after he dies..."

A Word Grenade

Excited proprietor—Hey! Ad writer—What is it? "Never use the word 'verve' again in an advertisement! Here in this morning's issue you have a statement that our 'sales force is full of verve'..."

Cost of Politeness

"Politeness costs nothing." "That's a mistake," replied the man who does not articulate well. "Every time I say 'please' to the telephone operator it costs valuable time because I can't manage to keep it from sounding to the operator like 'three'..."

Emulating the Lark

Lectured for lying abed late, the farmer's boy promised that in future he would "be up with the lark." The next morning the old farmer came in from his milking and found his son sitting on the stile and singing as blithely as though there was no such thing as work...

His Chief Trouble

There is an elevator boy in a New York office building who is among a large number of public servants who resent needless questions. One day there entered his car a rather fussy old lady, and garrulous as well...