Catholic Boys To Join Scouts.

A movement to enroll Catholic boys of Rochester in the Boy Scouts has been started under the leadership of the Rev. J. F. Brophy, assistant rector of Immaculate Conception Church, who was recently appointed by Bishop Thomas F. Hickey to take charge of this work.

Father Brophy organized the Immaculate Conception Cadets and the cadet band of 65 pieces and it is probably that this organization will affiliate with the scouts. The Knights of Columbus have voted to support the movement and to provide as many scout leaders as possible.
