In a sense love is everything. It is the key to life, and its influences are those that move the world. Live only in the thought of love for all and you will draw love to you from all. Live in the thought of malice and hatred and malice and hatred will come back to you.—Trina.

MORE GOOD CHEESE DISHES.

The list of cheese dishes in the culinary literature of our country are variations of a comparatively small number of general types.

Macaroni and Cheese.—This is a dish which takes the place of meat and when a few hard cooked eggs are added makes a most sustaining dish. Butter a baking dish and add a thick layer of cooked macaroni, sprinkle with rich cheese, cover with a rich white sauce, finish with buttered crumbs and bake in a hot oven. A bit of onion, fish or chopped vegetables may be added to give variety.

Cheese Omelet.—Beat two egg yolks until thick and lemon colored, add two tablespoonfuls of hot water and salt and pepper to taste. Beat the whites until stiff, then add one cupful of grated cheese. Put a tablespoonful of butter into the omelet pan; when smoking hot pour in the egg mixture and cook until well done on the bottom; set in the oven and finish cooking.

Welsh Rabbit.—Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter, add two tablespoonfuls of flour and when well blended add one cupful of hot milk; cook until smooth and creamy. Add one cupful of grated cheese, salt and pepper, stir until the cheese is melted, serve on toast or crackers. Half a cupful of chopped olives may be added if desired.

Celery and Cheese Salad.—Select celery stalks with deep grooves in them, wash and wipe dry. Mix a small cream cheese with salt, finely chopped pecans and add a spoonful of cream. Fill the grooves in the celery stalks with cheese and chill. When ready to serve cut stalks in small sized pieces for serving.

Cheese Soup.—To a quart of hot milk add a slice of onion and cook fifteen minutes. Remove the onion and add two tablespoonfuls each of flour and butter well mixed. Cook for five minutes until smooth, add a cupful of grated rich cheese and serve as soon as it is melted.

Die when I will, I want it said of me, by those who knew me best, that I always plucked a thistle and planted a flower where I thought a flower would grow.—A. Lincoln.

SWEETS FROM HONEY.

Honey is becoming more and more popular, and a back yard garden, a hen for each member of the family needs to make the living complete, a hive of bees, to furnish sweets.

Honey Blanc Mange.—Moisten six tablespoonfuls of cornstarch with one-fourth cupful of milk, add two cupfuls of boiling milk and cook eight minutes; then add a dash of salt, one-half cupful of honey. Mold in cups and serve sprinkled with chopped nuts and sugar and cream.

Honey Candy.—To one quart of honey take six tablespoonfuls of butter, two tablespoonfuls of vinegar and boil until it hardens in cold water. Flavor with two teaspoonfuls of almond and lemon mixed, add a half teaspoonful of soda, pour into buttered pans to cool. Mark off in squares before it gets too hard.

Butter Scotch.—Take one cupful of butter, two cupfuls each of sugar and honey, and a teaspoonful of vanilla added before taking off. Boil ten minutes, pour into buttered tins to cool and mark off in squares.

Cracker Jack.—Boil together one cupful of brown sugar and one cupful of honey until it hardens when a drop is added to cold water. Remove from the heat, add one-half teaspoonful of soda and all the puffed rice, wheat or popcorn that can be stirred into it.

Honey Fruit Cake.—Warm one-half cupful of butter, add three-fourths of a cupful of honey, one third of a cupful of apple jelly, remove from the heat; add two well beaten eggs, one teaspoonful of soda, a teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-half teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, all sifted with four cupfuls of flour. The soda is dissolved in a tablespoonful of water. Add one-half cupful each of currants, chopped orange peel, and raisins, one-fourth cupful of water and one-fourth teaspoonful of salt. Bake in a moderate oven.

Honey strained and mixed with chopped fruit and whipped cream makes a delicious dessert.

A fine cough medicine is made of one part horseradish root, grated, and two parts of honey.
