S. S. Peter and Paul.

Masses on Sunday will be held at 6:30, 8:15, 9:30 and high mass at 10:45 o'clock.

The diocesan collection will be taken up at all the masses on Sunday.

On Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock a requiem mass was celebrated for Eva Boss at the request of the Woman's Sodality.

At the meeting of Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 44, Knights of St. John held last Monday evening, Miss Marie Reger was the lucky winner of a month's dues.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Hasenstab, who died on last Saturday at her home, 81 Cady street, aged 78 years, was held on Tuesday morning at 8:30 from the home and at 9 o'clock from the church. The members of the Women's Sodality of which she was a member attended services at the church.

The marriage of Miss Elsie O. Brayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brayer of No. 1 Normandy Avenue to Edward M. Lorscheider, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Lorscheider of No. 162 Rugby Ave., was solemnized at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning. Rev. J. E. Gefell officiating. Breakfast was served at the home of the bride after ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Brayer, as maid of honor and the groom by Augustine Nolan. The ushers were Walter Brayer, Mathias Lorscheider, Charles Fox and Dr. James Gaffney. After their return to Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. Lorscheider will live at No. 1317 Genesee St.

St. Michael's.

The masses on Sunday will be as follows: 6:45, 7:45, 9:15 (children's mass) and 10:30 o'clock (high mass.)

The funeral of William Matthews took place Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Christine Wiegand-Matthews; three children and one brother, James H. Matthews of Lima. He was a member of St. Anthony's Benevolent Society.

On Tuesday evening, February 10th, a pedro party will be held under the auspices of the C. W. B. L. at the Parish Hall. All members and their friends are cordially invited to attend. Good prizes will be given.

The annual election of officers of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Knights of St. George took place recently and the following officers were elected: Spiritual adviser, Rev. Father Hargather; medical examiner, Dr. Norman Phaff; president, Mrs. Thomas Hempel; first vice-president, Mrs. Martha Wolensack; second vice-president, Mrs. Schneider; recording secretary, Mrs. Ida Heil; financial secretary, Mrs. Louise Bach; treasurer, Mrs. Kate Bienlein; messenger, Miss Teresa Wegman; guard, Mrs. Ray Hermle; trustees, Mrs. Anna Weismiller, Mrs. Clara Schoneberger, Mrs. Mayme Doolin, Mrs. Isabel Giebel and Mrs. Grasberger.

Immaculate Conception Parish.

The death of Elizabeth M. Murphy, widow of Judge John M. Murphy, and one of the leading women of the city in Catholic benevolent societies, occurred on Monday, February 2nd, in St. Mary's Hospital. She leaves three daughters, Mrs. Victor T. Noonan, Elizabeth U. and Catherine D. Murphy; one son, Emmett Murphy; two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Prindiville and Mrs. Martin J. Callihan; one brother, Austin O'Grady, of Buffalo and three grandchildren. The funeral took place Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the family home, No. 525 Plymouth avenue and at 9:45 o'clock from this church.

Solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. A. M. O'Neill, assisted by Rev. Stephen Byrne as deacon and Rev. Leo Smith as subdeacon. There was special music by a quartette composed of Mrs. Wm. H. Craig, Miss Blanche Drury, William F. Predmore and Albert Conway. The bearers were John McParlin, Frank Hellen, Frank Sheridan, James Conley, John Burns and Chief Joseph M. Quigley. Interment was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

Anna Kathryn Madden, daughter of Mrs. Frank Madden, of No. 197 Edinburgh street, was married to Thomas W. Finucane, of No. 20 Portsmouth terrace, Tuesday morning in this church, Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Hickey, D.D., performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. A. M. O'Neill, pastor of the church, and Rev. D. J. Curran, D.D., V.G., of Corpus Christi Church. Rev. Father O'Neill officiated at the mass. The attendants were Miss Mary Madden and Richard G. Finucane. After a Southern trip that will include the Panama canal they will return to Rochester by way of Palm Beach and will live at No. 20 Portsmouth terrace.

Nearly 300 former soldiers, sailors and marines were guests at a banquet held at the Powers Hotel last Thursday evening in honor of 361 members of this Church who saw service in the recent war. The dinner was under the auspices of the Holy Name Society. The speakers were the Rev. John J. Ganey and the Rev. Charles J. Bruton, both of whom served in France as army chaplains and both of whom formerly were assistant pastors at the Immaculate. The Immaculate Conception Orchestra furnished the music.

St. Andrew's Church.

The masses on Sunday are as follows: 7:30, 9:15 and 10:30 o'clock.

On Monday morning a mass was offered in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

On Tuesday the blessing of the throats took place directly after mass, in the afternoon and also in the evening when there was a large attendance.

Wednesday evening the Holy Name Society held their annual banquet. About 300 members attended. Rev. Wm. Ryan spoke and was thoroughly enjoyed by all as were also the good music, singing and jokes.

Thursday evening the Young Ladies' Sodality held their banquet. They could not come up to the Holy Name Society in number but in jokes, parodies etc., far excelled them.

The meeting of the Rosary Society which was to have taken place next Sunday has been postponed.

The requiem masses this week were for Fred Kolb, Mrs. Hanrathy, Catherine Smith and Magdalen Leckinger.

The funeral of Mrs. Ludwina Knapp took place from this church Friday morning at 9 o'clock. The Rosary Society, of which deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body. She is survived by four daughters and three sons; one sister, Mrs. Stephen Zeitvogel, of Webster, N. Y. and two brothers, Joseph and August. Interment was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery.
