Suits With Two Pairs of Long Trousers for Young Men

Boys of high school age and young men who are approaching maturity naturally incline to long trousers suits. They have about them the grown-up look that youth always craves.

Another important feature of these suits is that each has an extra pair of trousers so that there never need be a time when the young man is without a pair of neatly pressed trousers—ready for any occasion. Parents, too, realize the economy of the extra trousers.

We have a very fine line of these trousers suits in all-wool fancy cashmeres and plain chevrons. There are form fitting double breasted and single breasted models. One has all around belt and set-in pockets.

Prices are $35, $38.50, $40 and $42.50 and are remarkably reasonable when you consider the fabrics and the double service that the extra trousers give.

A full line of boys' furnishings is also carried in our Boys' department.
