You may furnish your home ever so attractively; place the richest of rugs on your floors, if you wish; and yet you need the necessary softening effects of proper wall coverings; the colorful tonetreatments; the contrasts which well selected wall papers alone can give.

May we assist in your selections?

The Minstrel Show that was given on Monday and Tuesday evenings under the auspices of the Knights of St. George was a grand success. The jokesmith had worked hard in preparation and the result was an entertainment that many professional performers might envy. The large audience showed its approval of the singing, stepping and puning way that audiences have by demanding repeated encores. Professor Frederic Pohl who directed the minstrels also led the orchestra which contributed greatly to the success of the show. Some of the funmakers were the interlocutor, Frank J. Koch, also the end men Philip Klingler, Clarence Schone-man, Billy Burke and Al. Frank. The principal soloists were Robert Heberger, baritone and Ferdinand Heberger, tenor, while Al. Frank scored a decided hit in singing "Bo-La-Bo". Albert and Frank Nagel were good in a dialogue skit. The Knights of St. George Stringed Instrument Club played and the entertainment closed with a bit of harmony by the Heberger's.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of our parish repeated their minstrel show at our parish hall on Thursday evening last before a large and appreciative audience. The affair was a big social and financial success and every one of the jesters who entertained deserve much credit. It was like refusing money to fail to avail yourself of the good time and pleasure derived from seeing the young ladies' fun producers and comedians; this minstrel talent showed pep, vim, push and cleverness as well as harmony and rhythm.
