

McCurdy's

Dainty White Dresses For Girls

Ideal for First Communion Services

Fine French Voile, Batiste, Georgettes and Net Dresses, in sizes 6 to 14 years. Charming, distinctively, and with many dainty individual touches. There is a very pleasing selection from which to choose, some featuring hand embroidery, others lace and insertion to match. Some of the more piquant models are trimmed with ruffles.

Perhaps the most interesting feature of these Dresses is the little prices at which we have marked them. It's really extraordinary nowadays to find such Dresses as these so painstakingly made, and so entirely desirable, at prices in any way rivalling. $7.50 up to $15.00. Third floor, West Bldg.

CHURCH NEWS

St. Peter and Paul.

Masses on Sunday will be held at 6:30, 8:15, 9:30 and high mass at 10:45 o'clock.

May devotions will be held every evening beginning on Saturday, May 1st, at 7:45, consisting of devotions in honor of our Blessed Mother.

The regular meeting of Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 44, Knights of St. John, will be held on Monday evening, May 3rd, when all returns for tickets for the dance, are to be made.

The installation of officers of Br. 62, L.C. B.A., will take place on Thursday evening, May 6th, after services at the church. A very nice lunch will be served after the meeting, and all members are invited to be present.

The April assessment, No. 364, will also expire on the same evening. Come and enjoy a pleasant evening.

Miss Anna Kipferl and Mr. Frank Bischofing were married on Wednesday morning, April 21, by Rev. J. E. Gefell. The attendants were Miss Josephine Kipferl and Mr. Frederick Bischofing. The ushers were Mr. Philip Kipferl and Mr. Raymond Brien. A wedding dinner was served at the bride's home to the immediate families. Mr. and Mrs. Bischofing will be at home after a short eastern trip on the Buffalo Road, Coldwater, N. Y.

St. Michael's.

The masses on Sunday will be as follows: 6:30, 7:45, 9:15 (children's mass) and 10:30 o'clock (high mass.)

St. Michael's Church was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, when Miss Hilda "Dorothy" Horner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Horner, 84 Avenue B, became the bride of Charles Francis Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ryan, 1768 Lake Ave. Rev. M. J. Hargather, pastor of the church performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. F. J. Hoefen and Rev. A. F. Edelman and Rev. S. B. Englerth in the sanctuary.

The bride wore a gown of white ivory satin trimmed with chantilly lace and a court train, her tulle veil which fell from a crown of chantilly lace was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Anna C. Horner, sister of the bride and maid of honor wore a gown of tulle over white crepe-de-chine and a white picture hat. She carried a shower of ophelia roses.

The Misses Kathleen and Lillian Ryan, sisters of the groom were the bridesmaids, they wore gowns of pink georgette over pink satin and picture hats to match, they carried showers of pink sweet peas.

The groom was attended by his brother, Raymond D. Ryan and the ushers were Thomas F. Murray, Jr. and Elmer J. Haag. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to the immediate families.

The groom's gift to his bride was a diamond platinum brooch and to his best man and ushers Spillane and one sister, Mrs. John were gold cuff links. The bride's gift to the maid of honor was a string of pearls and to her bridesmaids were sterling brooches.

Among the pre-nuptial events were: an aluminum and kitchen shower by Mrs. P. Weber, a canned fruit shower by Mrs. W. Reynell, a variety shower by the Misses Kathleen and Lillian Ryan, a towel shower by Miss Lavina Haag, a miscellaneous shower by the Misses Enders, a Five Hundred party by Miss Anna Horner and a theater and dinner party by Miss Anna Lewrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan left for an Eastern trip including New York, Atlantic City, Philadelphia and Washington. After May 15th, they will be at home in Rochester.

St. Michael's.

Sunday morning at the 7:45 o'clock mass the members of St. Leo's Benevolent Society will receive Holy Communion in a body.

The requiem masses for this week were for Lillian Staub, Henry Kesel, Sophia and Richard Eichorn, Wilhelmina Fuerst, Philip Klingler, Agnes Webber, Ignatz and Catharine Scheid, Joseph Kruppenbacher, Carl Speckman and Elizabeth Wunsch.

On Sunday, May 16th, the children of this parish will receive their first Holy Communion.

On Saturday morning a high mass will be celebrated for a special intention after which the opening of the May devotion will be held.

The bans of matrimony were announced Sunday between Mr. John Schweitzer and Miss Josephine Hasenauer.

The members of the choir held a bowling party last Monday evening and prizes were won by Mr. William Heeks and Miss Martha Klingler. Luncheon was served. A pleasant evening was spent by all.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Frank Koch of St. Paul street on the death of her mother, Mrs. Clements of Detroit, Michigan.

Sacred Heart.

The young people of Sacred Heart parish are rehearsing for the Irish concert and national song festival which will be presented by them in Convention hall on Tuesday evening, May 4th. Tickets are on sale and orders may be placed with Miss Elizabeth A. Sheehan, Main 519-W, or with any member of Sacred Heart parish.

A "New Ireland" quartette, consisting of Margaret Heveron, Craig, Blanche Drury, T. LaPalm and William F. Predmore, will be a feature in the Irish song number. Dick Kelly, who promises to make his mark before long as an Irish comedian, and Burke Armstrong, another young man said to possess great possibilities, are expected to create much laughter.

Songs of Irish merriment will be sung by Mae Roberts and Mazie Waters, and songs of Irish devotion will be heard from Nicholas Pagliara, Charles Sullivan, Edward Sweeney, John Cronin and Lawrence Weber. A group of "five lads and lassies" right from the land of the shamrock will carry the audience back in spirit to their childhood days on "Wicklow's green hills." Two hundred of the younger people of the parish are to take part in the concert.

Blessed Sacrament

Daniel W. Spillane, formerly of Rochester, was stricken with apoplexy last Saturday and died on Thursday morning, April 29th in the Homeopathic Hospital in Albany. Mr. Spillane moved to Albany about ten years ago and conducted an insurance agency there. He was a member of the Albany Council of the Knights of Columbus, Elks, Albany Club and other local organizations.

The body was brought to this city to the home of his brother, E. J. Spillane, No. 65 Richard street. He leaves two brothers, Emanuel J., and Augustus J., and to his best man and ushers Spillane and one sister, Mrs. John Zale, all of Rochester. The funeral will be held from his brother's home at 8:45 o'clock Saturday morning and from this Church at 10 o'clock. Burial will be made in the family lot in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

You Still Have Time to Buy One of Those Sweaters

They are good sweaters, all wool and the best styles of the season, and they won't cost you a good bit more. But because they had only one or two of each style, we took them out to us at a low figure—and you're the gainer.

They are in light, bright summer colors, very thing you'll be wanting in a few weeks for door sports and vacation wear.

In the wanted light weights that feel like nothing on, yet are sufficiently warm to ward off cool spring breezes.

Such delightful colors as flame, turquoise, purple, coral, and tan, some with contrasting cuffs. Choose from plain and fancy styles, combinations of the two, and from sashed and belted models.

The special sale price is $10.95. All sizes.
