Charming Voile Dresses

Reduced to $7.98 and $9.98

They are dresses that have sold for very much more and any woman who buys one will get one of the biggest bargains of the season. And there is practically the whole summer ahead in which to wear them.

At $7.98—Dark colored voile dresses with round neck, ruffled apron tunic and short sleeves. Also crisp white dotted Swiss dresses as cool looking as an ice cream soda, made in simple sweet style with sash and a tiny satin bow at the neck.

At $9.98—Flowered voile frocks on grounds of navy, brown and copenhagen. They have three-quarter sleeves and are trimmed with rows of inch-wide velvet. There are two styles, one with round neck and revers of the material, the other with batiste embroidered collar, sash and deep tunic. Basement

The Weis family annual reunion took place at Corbetts Glen last Sunday afternoon. Races and a long list of sports entertained and kept the relatives in a lively merry mood.

Mr. Edward Skuse of Mt. Vernon Ave., is spending two weeks with friends in Detroit, Mich.

The Munding, Ritz, Kimmel and Nold families held their first annual family reunion and outing last week Monday at Wayland, N. Y., a quiet and sublime little bump on the earth twixt Rochester and somewhere. The families motored to the aforesaid former habitude and anchored on Kimmel's Apple Juice Farm—a strip of terra firma renowned throughout the country. A long list of races were on the days program of hilarity and lunch in the old-fashioned "a la Grab" style was furnished.

Miss Margaret Nold entertained the large attendance with comic dialect stories and gave a laughing solo; John Fox demonstrated his ability in devouring.

The big exciting event of the day, however was the baseball game between Tony Ritz's Tigers of Rochester and Frank Kimmel's Colts of Wayland, the former defeating and lambasting the latter to a tune of 19 to 15. Ed. Nold, popular and well known captain of Kimmel's Scalpers admitted it was the trimming of their lives due to the heavy stick-work of the Rochester diamond artists. Both teams were in uniform and a neutral umpire officiated in the bang-up exhibition.
