CHURCH NEWS

St. Peter and Paul's.

Masses on Sunday will be at 6:30, 8:15, 9:30 and high mass at 10:45 o'clock.

The members of St. Francis Society will celebrate their feast day by receiving holy communion in a body at the 8:15 o'clock mass next Sunday morning.

The Forty Hours' devotion which opened in this church on Friday morning will close on Sunday evening with procession of the Blessed Sacrament.

The members of Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 44, Knights of St. John elected the following officers at their meeting on Monday evening:—Spiritual Adviser, Rev. William Stauder; past president, Margaret Reger; president, Louise Meyers; 1st vice president, Margaret Carlin; 2nd vice president, Anna Brueckel; recording secretary, Harriet Schoen; financial secretary, Emma Ring; treasurer, Catharine Schwarz; messenger, Anna McGrath; sentinel, Susan Stritt; guard, Dora Diehl; trustees, Clara Haungs, Emma Rowkoski and Lillie Bisnet; delegates to district auxiliary, Theresa Ganster and Margaret Reger; medical examiners, Dr. Katharine Daily and Dr. Henry.

The funeral of John Eberle who died on last Wednesday was held on last Saturday morning at 8:45 from the home of his brother-in-law, John Seeley, 365 1-2 Brown street and at 9 o'clock from this church.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

The masses on Sunday will be held at 6, 7:30, children's mass at 9:15 and high mass at 10:30 o'clock.

A three day retreat opened on last Sunday morning at the 6 o'clock mass and closed on Wednesday evening at 8:45 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Healy. Sunday afternoon it was exclusively for the women and in the evening for the men. The attendance was very pleasing and gratifying to Father Healy.

On Monday evening St. George Benevolent Society held their meeting. The Altar Society held a meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The reception of young ladies into the Young Ladies Sodality was held on Wednesday evening at the closing of the retreat, also the enrolling of Rosary Society members and the Sacred Heart League, which admits men, women and children.

The requiem masses this week were for Catharine and William Keller, Louis Voellmyer, Josephine Bartel, Mrs. Dorothea Goets and John Niekel.

The receipts from the old-fashioned Thanksgiving festival realized close to $600.

Next Sunday the Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion in a body.

ST. MARY'S

The requiem masses for this week were for Joseph Gall, Loretta Gross, Joseph Schuler, Marie Schaubert, Appolonia Schuble, Josephine Frank, Theresa Knipper, Alexander Englert, Michael Boehly and Henry Neuer.

Sunday morning at the 7:30 o'clock mass the members of the Young Ladies Sodality will receive holy communion in a body.

The Federation of Catholic Societies will celebrate their feast day with a high mass at 10:30 o'clock in this church. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. John P. Schellhorn.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Gasner took place Monday morning at 9 o'clock from this church.

Gaelic Lessons Being Taught at St. Mary's School

Interest is increasing in the Irish language classes held every Monday evening at St. Mary's School, South street, and the formation of a permanent Gaelic Society is contemplated. Over 50 are now enrolled in the classes, with an executive committee of 15 members to direct the movement. Following are the officers: Chairman, J. Donovan; vice-chairman, F. Driscoll; secretary, Miss Margaret Garret; treasurer, Miss Mary Feley.

The lesson for next Monday night will be 100 popular words and phrases. All interested in the study of Gaelic are invited to attend.

St. Mary's Debt in Canandaigua Being Wiped Out

Canandaigua, Dec. 8.—Encouraging progress is being made in the campaign to wipe out St. Mary's parish debt of $25,000. A drive started in the summer and in which parishioners make daily contributions, has resulted to date in $10,800 being paid off. Of this amount the school children contributed $300.01. An effort is to be made to wipe out the remainder before May 1, by which time the rector, the Rev. James T. Dougherty, is expected home from Arizona, where he is seeking to regain his shattered health.

Review of Barrie's Play

Frederick Paulding, a well known actor and playwright of New York, reviewed Sir James Barrie's play, "Dear Brutus," from the viewpoint of "Symbolism in Modern English Drama," Friday evening at Nazareth Academy, Lake avenue.

The program combined a dramatic interpretation of Barrie and a literary appreciation of his play. Mr. Paulding, previous to his retirement from the stage, supported Margaret Mather in her Shakespearean productions and played with Viola Allen and Mrs. John Drew in more modern dramas. He is the author of "Two Men and a Girl," which has won popularity on the legitimate stage and screen.

The evenings program, which is part of a series of dramatic reviews that was given by Mr. Paulding last winter at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, New York, was presented under the auspices of the Nazareth Alumnae Association.

The requiem masses were said this week for Joseph Bailey and family, Mary Weisenborn and Louise Lefrois.

Sunday is communion day for the Young Ladies Sodality.

Blessed Sacrament Church

The funeral of John Stanton Culver, infant son of Clifford A. and Rhena May Culver, who died on Monday evening, took place at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home, 304 Monroe avenue. Rev. Thomas F. Connors, officiated. Burial was made in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

St. Francis Xavier.

Masses on Sunday are at 7, 8, 9:15 and 10:30 o'clock.

Knights of Columbus.

The new Knights of Columbus five will open its season next Tuesday evening at Genesee Hall with the Perintons of Fairport. On paper it would appear the Knights will have a nifty combination, though of course, the machine will need considerable work before it is ready to travel on high gear. The Knights will show Dolley, Syracuse, and Hague, Buffalo, at right forward; McGrane, Notre Dame, left forward; Cullen at center; O'Connor, Mulvey, Syracuse, at right guard, and Houghton, Union, and Pugsley, Union, at left guard.
