An Authentic Exhibit of the Newest Fashions For SPRING WEAR

A Showing of Everything That's New

As Launched by Authoritative French and American Designers

Suits that combine individuality with tailleur perfection. The strictly tailored and belted models are shown with box-coat bloused and cape back styles as WELL AS THOSE to which beading and embroidery are applied in entirely new ways--the effect of which you can readily imagine is both rich and good taste.

A Suit Priced Special at $25.00

Tricotine Suit in navy, beautifully lined with figured silk, finished with silk braid and button trim. The coat is of the Latest Model with its long lapel of silk braid trim and one button feature in five rows above the coat. Silk braid trimming extending around the waist line from the pocket position is overcast in the back by the setting of two pendants button and braid trimmed, reaching a termination just below the bottom coat line. Skirt of regulation straight line $25.00.

Suits from $22.50 to $85.00

Nobby Worsted Jersey Suits $16.50

DRESSES--The occasion offers one of the most fascinating and varied Chapters of Fashion's Newest. Featured are the basque and Bouffante effects AS WELL AS the youthful French straight line Silhouette--THE FAVORED MATERIALS, Georgette, Satin, Crepe, Canton Crepe, Tricotine, Crepe de Chine, Chiffon and Lace; ALSO Poret Twill and Piquette--One of the most interesting groups are the Beaded Dressss, models of rare charm and beauty.

A Special at $18.50

This is a particularly pleasing youthful model of Superior Tricotee, in the middy effect with abbreviated sleeve and plain contrasting collar and cuff trim of same material with added narrow ribbon bows of same shade as collar and cuff. These ribbon bows edge the collar and either side of blouse, giving it a strikingly youthful appearance of simplicity, sufficient of style tone. We are showing this dress in tans, black, browns and navy.

DRESSES--Wool from $10.00 to $49.50.
Silk from $15.00 to $89.50.
Ask for Miss O'Leary

WRAPS--The Soft Velvety Faced Materials are favored--AND THE MODELS while gracefully draped show something of the sport lines and also the Dolman--ON--SOME--Embroidery is used, OTHERS are of Crepe with Silk Fringe Trimming.

A Special at $29.50

This beautiful Spring Wrap attracts perhaps more than usual attention when wraps are coming into favor day by day. A wrap coat of bolivia in one of the lighter neutral shadings, beautifully lined with silk, embroidered in lineal extension with three rows down the back to harmonize with its collar trim. The diagonal plain open pocket and single plain cuff completes in full essential of detail the popular loose hanging, comfortable and stylish outer garment of the season's showing.

Others $14.50 to $100.

CHILDREN OF THE SPRING.

WHAT means the Spring to you?
The tree, the bloom, the grass,
Wide fields to wander through;
A primrose path to pass;
Bright sun, and skies of blue;

The songs of singing streams;
The rippling riverdale
Awakening from slumbers;
Fair-browed and azure-eyed--
Oh, thus the Springtime seems.

Yet not for such as you
She comes with song and voice,
'Tis not for such as you
She makes the heart rejoice,
She comes with skies of blue.

Spring's children are the ill--
'Tis these she comes to cheer;
Upon the window-sill,
Within the chamber drear,
She sits her song to trill.

On narrow cots they lie
Within the quiet room,
Their sky a square of sky
Cut from the inner gloom,
From dreary walls and high.

Spring means so much to these,
The prisoners a-bed!--
The perfume of the breeze,
The birdsong overhead,
The echoed melodies.

The window open wide--
Behold, the Spring is here!
No more the countryside
Is dim and dark and drear;
Now stronger runs the tide.

The pale and patient wife,
Her babe upon her breast,
Forgets the night, the knife,
And sleeps the sleep of rest,
Awakening to life.

The old, the very old,
Behold in budding Spring
Another year unfold--
And life, a tinsel thing,
Is turned again to gold.

And e'en the empty cot,
Whose Spring has come too late,
The one who now is not,
The one who could not wait,
The Spring has not forgot.

For, see! the Springtime stands
Our drooping eyes to raise
To fair and shining strands;
The Springtime comes and lays
A lily in his hands.

Mother's Cook Book

I will look sometimes about me for the things that merit praise:
I will search for hidden beauties that elude the grumbler's gaze;
I will try to find contentment in the paths that I must tread;
I will cease to have resentment when another moves ahead.

MEALS FOR A DAY.

FOR a choice dish sometime on a special occasion you may like to try:

Chicken Fillets With Almond Sauce.
Sprinkle two chicken fillets with salt, a little pepper and a few grains of cayenne. Dip in olive oil and cook in a hot frying pan until delicately brown. Add to the pan one cupful of equal parts of white sauce and cream. When hot thicken further with two tablespoonfuls of flour rubbed to a paste with an equal quantity of olive oil or cream. Stir until the sauce boils, then add one-half cupful of thinly sliced almonds.

Apple Roll.

Mix together one and one-half cupfuls of flour, one-third of a cupful of lard and a teaspoonful of salt; when well blended add just enough water to make a paste of the consistency to roll. Set in a cold place for 24 hours. Roll into a sheet one-eighth of an inch thick, dot with bits of butter and spread with apples, sugar and nutmeg. Roll like a jelly roll and bake. Serve sliced across with pudding sauce poured over it.

Almond Sponge Cake.

Blanch and pound in a mortar one ounce of sweet and one ounce of bitter almonds. Pound them two at a time, adding a few drops of water or white of egg to prevent the nuts from boiling. When a smooth paste, add the yolks of five eggs alternately with one cupful of powdered sugar. Then add one cupful of flour, sifted with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Lastly, fold in the stiffly beaten whites and bake as for angel food.

Apple Salad.

Take the rich red apples of uniform size and cut off the tops at the stem end, deep enough to take in the stem, which may be used as covers for the apples. Scoop out the pulp, mince and mix with a bit of scraped onion, a few nuts and some chopped celery. Add any good, well-seasoned salad dressing and refill the cups. Arrange on a lace-dolly-covered plate and serve with the pork roast.
