CHURCH NEWS

St. Peter and Paul's.

The masses on Sunday will be held at 6:30, 8:15, 9:30 and high mass at 10:45 o'clock.

School collection will be taken up at all the masses on Sunday.

Sunday will be communion day for the young ladies of the parish. The members of the Sodality will receive in a body at the 8:15 o'clock mass.

The graduating exercises of our school will take place Sunday evening in the church.

George J. Danzer, aged 55 years died suddenly on Thursday, June 9th. He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Frank Dykell, Mrs. Arthur Thomas and the Misses Louise and Ruth Danzer; two sons, Elmer and Raymond Danzer; two brothers, Casper and Frank Danzer and four sisters, Mrs. Jacob Spitz, Mrs. Joseph Schraml, Mrs. Henry Boss and Mrs. Val Boss. The funeral was held on Monday morning at 8:40 from the home, 225 Wilder street and at 9 o'clock at this church. Requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. J. E. Gefell and the children's choir under the direction of Professor Weber sang the mass. The bearers were: John Schraml, George and Robert Boss, Jacob Spitz, Frank Dykell and Arthur Thomas. Burial was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery. The services at the grave were conducted by Rev. John McMahon.

The marriage of Miss Marguerite Vay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Vay, to Mr. Edward Krieg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Krieg, took place Thursday afternoon, June 9th at 4 o'clock. Rev. J. Emil Gefell officiated, assisted by Rev. William Stauder. Mr. Weber presided at the organ.

Mrs. Harold Stonebreaker, sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor; Miss Katherine Wilson was bridesmaid and Florence Hebing, niece of the bride was flower girl. Mr. Harold Stonebreaker attended Mr. Krieg as best man. The ushers were Mr. Earl Reynolds, Mr. Verne Edgcombe and Mr. Arthur Vay.

The bride wore white satin, draped with lace, her veil was adorned with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Stonebreaker wore orchid taffeta and organdie with hat to match and carried Ophelia roses. Miss Wilson wore pink organdie and taffeta with hat to match and carried Columbia roses. Little Miss Hebing wore a frock of blue organdie and carried a French bouquet. The ceremony was followed by a reception and dinner at the home of the bride's parents. The decorations at the bride's table were in pink and white and the rooms were profusely decorated with roses, peonies, larkspur, ferns and palms. Prenuptial events included a luncheon by Mrs. Emil Keller; a glass shower by Miss Wilson, and a luncheon by Mrs. Stonebreaker. Mr. and Mrs. Krieg left for a trip to Atlantic City and New York. They will be at home after July 15th at 78 Kenwood avenue.

Catholic Women's Club Held Picnic

Members of the Catholic Women's Club and their friends, numbering about 300, attended a family picnic in East Maplewood Park, conducted by the club on Wednesday afternoon and evening. The picnickers played games and listened to talks on club activities by Donald Donahue, Edward Hartell, Philip Donnelly, Ernest Dougherty and Miss Marie Regan.

In the evening supper was served, at which Miss Frances Fox, president of the club, presided. The Club Orchestra entertained during the supper. Each guest was given a small American flag as a souvenir.

Prayers were offered for Mrs. Bridget Rosenbauer.

The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Rosenbauer took place on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from this church. She is survived by five sons and three daughters. Interment was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

St. Mary's Church.

On last Sunday morning one of our newly ordained priests, Raymond Francis Lynd, celebrated his first solemn high mass at 10:45 o'clock in this church. Rev. Joseph Cameron of Bath acted as deacon and Rev. Ignatius Cameron of St. Bernard's Seminary was subdeacon; Edward Lynd, brother of Father Lynd was master of ceremonies. The sermon was eloquent and was preached by Rev. Simon Fitz-Simons, the pastor. Father Fitz-Simons characterized the beautiful life of a priest, telling of their studies as students and of their duties as priests of the church. In concluding Father Fitz-Simons asked the prayers of the congregation for the newly ordained priests, adding that they surely needed them at this time.

Pews were reserved in the left front center aisle for the parents of Father Lynd, Mr. and Mrs. John Lynd, also about forty other relatives and friends of the priest.

The following priests were in the sanctuary, Rev. J. M. Sellinger, Rev. J. Cassidy, Rev. W. O'Brien and others.

The ushers were John Cuccen, Charles McCracken and F. S. Hayden.

HOLY APOSTLES.

The funeral of Private Albert M. Murphy, Co. 1, 305th Infantry, 77th Division, who died in service overseas, took place Friday morning at 10 o'clock from this church. Burial was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery. Private Murphy leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Murphy of 228 Campbell Park; two brothers, Edward of Rochester and Frank of Rhode Island, and two sisters, Lorette and Catherine Murphy of Rochester.

He entered the army February 25, 1918, and after training at Camp Devens sailed for France April 28th. His death resulted from gas poisoning received while serving in the Argonne.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

Mary C. Hogan, died Wednesday at her home at 10 Gordon Park, aged 86 years. She leaves one sister, Miss Anna E. Hogan. Miss Hogan retired from active duty eighteen years ago, after completing forty-five years as a teacher in the public schools.

Miss Hogan was born in Rochester, November 26, 1835, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hogan, a pioneer family in the Fifth Ward, which was instrumental in the organizing and building of St. Bridget's Church of which Miss Hogan was a life member. During her long career as a teacher she served for the greater part of her time at No. 20 School in Oakman street.
