

Seven Students Receive Holy Orders

In St. Patrick's Cathedral on last Saturday morning seven students of St. Bernard's Seminary were ordained to the priesthood by the Rt. Rev. Joseph Conroy, auxiliary bishop and administrator of the diocese of Ogdensburg, who conferred holy orders on the class in the absence of Bishop Hickey, who is in the West.

The class of St. Bernard's numbered 18, and 11 of the students have either been ordained or will be in their home dioceses. Of the seven ordained, six are for the diocese of Rochester and one for the diocese of Syracuse.

Bishop Conroy was assisted by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor James J. Hartley, D. D., president of St. Bernard's Seminary, who presented the class for ordination; the Rev. J. Francis O'Hern, rector of the Cathedral, and the Rt. Rev. Andrew B. Meehan, D. D., of St. Bernard's Seminary.

The ordination was attended by scores of members of the clergy, who occupied seats in the sanctuary, and by the entire student body of the seminary, as well as by hundreds of relatives and friends of the young men receiving holy orders. The students of the seminary chanted parts of the ordination service under the direction of the Rev. John B. Petter, S. T. B.

Those ordained were: the Revs. Edward K. Ball, Ignatius Cameron, William Cannan, Francis Lynd, Chester McCauley and Raymond J. Epping for the diocese of Rochester, and the Rev. Matthew Lawlor for the diocese of Syracuse.

Arbitration The Remedy

There were fully two thousand people at the mass meeting held at Convention Hall on Thursday evening, when Rev. Dr. John A. Ryan of the Catholic University of Washington spoke.

Dr. Ryan is secretary of the social activities department of the National Catholic Welfare Council, and distinguished as a speaker of exceptional ability.

PEARSE COUNCIL TO ATTEND MEETING AT GENEVA

Padriac Pearse Council of the American Association for Recognition of the Irish Republic will attend the district mass meeting to be held at Geneva on July 4.

The council voted to attend with not less than 1,000 members, and two bands will accompany the delegation. Exclusive of this there will be 500 ex-service men in uniform, in charge of J. Sullivan.

A special meeting will be held at the hall, Main street east and Swan street on Wednesday, June 29, to arrange final details.

Columbus Club Plan to Increase Membership

Plans to increase interest among its members in the Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, were discussed informally Thursday at the weekly luncheon of the Columbus Club, composed of boosters of Rochester Council. William F. Schaefer presided and Rev. Father O'Brien, of this city, was the speaker. Charles Hawkins led the singing and Leo McCarthy, a Rochester attorney, entertained with several solos. Approximately seventy-five were present.

At a business meeting plans were made for financing the Columbus Club and it is expected that the membership soon will reach 250 or 300.

Supreme Officers Knights of St. John Visiting This City

The supreme officers of the Knights of St. John will make their first visit to Rochester in some years, today (Friday), when a special meeting will be held to consider matters of vital importance to the organization. Sessions will be held today and tomorrow.

Colonel Joseph H. Weis of the First Regiment of Rochester has named a committee to arrange for the entertainment of visitors. Supreme officers who will be here are: President James B. Dugan of Lima, O.; secretary, Leo G. Schu, of Evansville, Ind.; treasurer, William T. Hornhorst, of Covington, Ky.; trustee, Joseph J. Treppa, of Detroit; counsel, John C. Shea, of Dayton, O.; and medical examiner, Dr. C. A. Lenhard, of Detroit. Frank Biel of this city is a trustee.

A dinner in honor of the visitors will be held at Powers Hotel Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. This will be attended by Rochester Knights and their ladies. The officers will remain in Rochester over Sunday and will attend the annual field mass of the First Regiment at Holy Sepulcher Cemetery. The mass will be celebrated by Bishop Hickey, assisted by Rochester parish priests and several from St. Bernard's Seminary. All Catholics are invited to attend the mass, which will be celebrated at a temporary altar in the cemetery, with the Knights of St. John Choral Society furnishing the music.

The Rochester commanderies will act as an escort to Bishop Hickey and officers of the mass to and from St. Bernard's Seminary. The Immaculate Conception Cadet Band will take part. The procession will be under command of Colonel Weis. The Rochester commanderies will move to St. Bernard's Seminary where they will meet the bishop and officers of the mass. Following the mass the commanderies will escort the bishop back to the seminary and will then continue on to Kodak Park athletic field where opportunity will be given all to personally meet the supreme officers.

L.C.B.A Convention In Atlantic City Next Month

The National Convention of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association will be held in Atlantic City next month. The convention will be one of the largest held by women, at least 900 delegates, and as many visitors attending, coming from all parts of the country. Rochester has two Supreme Officers, Mrs. Cora McParlin, Supreme Trustee, and Dr. Katherine L. Daly, Supreme Medical Examiner.

A special train will convey the Rochester delegates and visitors, about sixty in number, from this city over the New York Central Lines, leaving here Sunday morning July 10th, the Convention opening July 12th. This train will stop at Syracuse, Utica and Albany, taking on the delegates from those cities. Many friends of the organization will join the Rochester party, taking advantage of the special rates, and the privilege of stopping over in Philadelphia and New York City. Anyone desiring to go can phone Mrs. McParlin, Chase 453.

Knights of Columbus Players Present "Under Cover" Again

The Knights of Columbus Players will present "Under Cover", at Concordia Hall, in Clifford avenue to-night and tomorrow (Saturday) night.

All members of the original cast, including Teresa I. Frank and Joseph Shale in the leads, will appear in the same parts as they did a month ago when it was so successfully presented in the Temple Theater.

The Young Ladies' Sacred Heart Society and the Holy Name Society of Holy Redeemer parish have charge of the performances. The proceeds will go into a fund for a new parish organ.

HOW DO YOU SAY IT?

By C. N. LURIE
Common Errors in English and How to Avoid Them

"LIKELY" AND "LIABLE"
"WILL you disobey the law?" "It is not likely that I shall do so." "Well, if you do, you will be liable to arrest."
The foregoing sentences may be used to illustrate the distinction that is made by careful writers and speakers between the words "likely" and "liable." The former word is used properly of an event that is regarded as very probable, and usually, but not always, favorable. "Likely" is not used properly in the sense of "likely" except to indicate an undesirable or injurious event which may befall a person or thing.

An eminent lecturer was asked, at the conclusion of an address on "The Moral Tendencies of the Times," whether he did not consider it probable that all men, being trained properly in youth, would pursue the paths of honesty. He replied, "Yes, it is likely that they will do so, but all men are liable to err."

If the Telephone Business Were YOUR Business

YOU would want to give good service.

YOU would want to maintain an adequate force of capable workers.

YOU would want to keep your property in first-class condition.

YOU would want to extend your facilities to provide the additional service needed by the public.

YOU would want to pay a fair return to the investors who have put their savings into your business.

YOU would want to secure sufficient net revenue to attract the new capital required for enlarging your plant.

YOU would want to do the very things we want to do—the very things that YOU know MUST be done to maintain good service.

THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good

By JESSIE ROBERTS

THE WOMAN DOCTOR

IT WAS not so long ago that the woman doctor was held more or less in contempt. She was supposed to be a freak, to put it clearly, and it was only freaks who would go to her for treatment.

It is still a surprise when you hear a college girl say that she is studying medicine. It will become less and less so as prejudice fades and as more and more women enter the field. There are nowhere near enough good doctors and in the constantly extending work of preventive medicine women will find the fullest opportunity. It is there, more even than with children and with women, that woman will do her greatest medical labor. Preventive medicine is only in its infancy. Those who know say that it will soon see an immense extension. The lessons of the war have been of tremendous value in teaching what may be expected, and even these are but forerunners.

The woman who has a taste for medicine and who can give the necessary time to its study is preparing a fine future for herself. The day is over when the intellectual woman went into teaching as the one most interesting profession open to her. The woman doctor is already on her way. In a few years she will be known as commonly as her brother, and as favorably. No woman who feels drawn to the work should hesitate to follow it. If she can by any means accomplish the training required.
