Plans For Big Time At Picnic of C.Y.M.A. At Corbett's Glen

Enthusiasm reigns in the club rooms of the Catholic Young Men's Association of St. Joseph's Church over the twenty-ninth annual picnic which will be held Wednesday, July 20th, at Corbett's Glen. The members are counting the days and hours. It is expected to be a glorious occasion for one and all if old "Sol" will only poke his crimson face over the eastern horizon on that morn. All members of the C. Y. M. A. and the male members of St. Joseph's Church are invited.

The picnickers will go to the picnic grounds in automobiles, they will be lined up ready to leave at nine o'clock, in front of the club rooms in Ormond street, they will then proceed to Franklin street and out East avenue to the Glen, there they will scatter to the ball grounds to work up an appetite for dinner, which will be served to them by Hoffman, in army style, sandwiches and drinks will be on hand in abundance the entire day for those who may wish them.

The program for the afternoon will include a baseball game between the married and single men, and other athletic sports and races. The prizes offered for the races will be well worthy for the contestants striving for them, it is promised. After the sun has gone down the crowd of merry makers will start on their homeward journey.

The committee is working diligently, and it is expected that a large crowd will be in attendance. Those in charge of the affair are: Gustave G. Klotz, chairman; Bert A. Horn, treasurer; Eustace Leinen, Walter Mura, Sports; William Ernst, Herbert Mura, transportation; Charles Mura, Joseph Sehm, Charles Weigle, Eugene Schueler and George Kress will be busy trying to keep the bunch from getting hungry.

On Saturday, the feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, there will be a high mass celebrated for the members of the Ladies' Sodality. The masses on Sunday morning, will be held at 6:30, 8:15, 9:30 and high mass at 10:30 o'clock. The Young Ladies' Sodality will receive holy communion in a Lady at the 8:15 o'clock mass on Sunday.

The school collection will be taken up at all the masses on Sunday.
