SEVENTH ANNUAL LAYMEN'S RETREAT

Will Begin at St. Bernard's Seminary On Friday, August 12, at 6 P. M.

The seventh annual laymen's retreat will begin at St. Bernard's Seminary, at 6 P. M. on Friday, August 12th. The retreat will conclude with breakfast at 7 A. M. on Monday, August 15th.

The object of the retreat is to afford Catholic laymen and non-Catholic laymen who may desire, an opportunity to withdraw themselves for a few days from the busy work-a-day world and look into themselves. The time spent in retreat is by no means a dull time. Every opportunity is given for social recreation.

The exercises of the retreat begin with spiritual exercises at 7 A. M. on August 13th. The remainder of the day to 10 P. M. is spent either in spiritual exercises or in recreation. The same program will be followed on August 14th.

The exercises are conducted under the guidance of a Jesuit father, who will speak on topics of considerable interest to the men of the diocese.

Everything has been done by Bishop Hickey and the faculty of St. Bernard's Seminary to make these retreats pleasant and fruitful to those attending them. The best accommodations and the finest meals are provided, so that while the welfare of the soul is being attended to the care of the body is not overlooked. The whole spirit of the retreat is one to brush away gloom and to have those in attendance look at the essential truths amid surroundings where no distractions will divert their minds.

It has been well said that those who in the past have gone to these retreats have come away from them feeling much better in mind, in body and in soul. At these retreats the Catholic men of the city come into closer touch with each other and with the priests of the Church. Some one has said that there is a great need for a closer contact between our priests and the laity. In no other place can the closer contact be afforded than at the annual week-end retreats held at St. Bernard's Seminary.

To attend these retreats it is necessary for a man to be away from his business for only half a day, that is the forenoon of Saturday. When one considers the ease with which the Seminary is reached, the small expenditure of time from business, and the slight expense connected with attendance at the retreat, it is clear that every man in the city should attend if possible.

Those men wishing to attend the retreat will send their names to Mr. Frank X. Kelly or to Charles J. Maloy, at 209 Linden street, Rochester, N. Y. Names may also be handed in to their respective pastors.

Rochester Nun In Heroic Role On Rapids King

Information given out Monday from the Rochester offices of the Canadian Steamship Lines disclosed the fact that there was only one passenger from this city on the ill-fated steamer Rapids King, which went on the rocks in the St. Lawrence river last Saturday afternoon. This person was a religious from the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy, in South street, is one of the trio which was mentioned in press dispatches as playing an important part in preventing a panic among the passengers when the vessel struck. The other nun and laywoman connected with the incident are said to have been from Elmira. They were on their way to make a pilgrimage to the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre.

Priest Receives $1,000

A reception in honor of Rev. John Smith, assistant pastor of this church, was held in the assembly hall of the Holy Apostles School, Lyell avenue and Austin street, Tuesday evening, at which the congregation presented him with a purse of $1,000. The reception was in the form of a farewell party tendered for Rev. Father Smith, who has been appointed assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church at Corning.

Rev. Father Smith came to our church five years ago as a newly ordained priest. A glowing tribute was paid to him by Rev. John P. Nelligan, pastor of the church. The friendship and esteem in which he is held by the congregation is evident from the gift, the presentation of which was made by Carl Casey.

The assembly hall of the school was filled to its capacity. The place was artistically decorated for the occasion and refreshments were served. Music was furnished by an orchestra. The arrangements were in charge of Charles M. Shatzel.

Holy Redeemer.

The opening of a novena, or nine-day service Sunday evening at this church, brought out a large attendance, including many who came to petition at a special shrine for the intercession of St. Anne.

The shrine was erected for those who are unable to make the pilgrimage to St. Anne de Beaupre, in Canada. As is the case at St. Anne de Beaupre, announcement of cures is not made until six months after the novena, when the cured ones are examined by non-Catholic physicians.

Students from St. Bernard's Seminary assisted in the service Sunday evening, alternating in singing the "magnificat" with the choir. Rev. Francis G. Kunz, Rev. William Heisel and Rev. J. F. Staub officiated.

Immaculate Conception.

The military funeral of William Wiley Doud, of the 309th Field Artillery, who was killed in action in France on November 1, 1918, and whose body arrived in this city last Saturday, took place at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning from the family home, No. 126 Plymouth avenue, and at 9 o'clock from this church. About two hundred members of W. W. Doud Post, American Legion, which was named in honor of the deceased soldier, marched to the house as escort and were led to the church by the Immaculate Conception School Boys' Cadet Band.

Solemn mass of requiem was celebrated in the church by Rev. A. M. O'Neill, D. D., and he was assisted by Chaplain Edward F. Kirk, of Inglewood, N. J., who went overseas with the 309th Field Artillery, as deacon, and Rev. Alphonse A. Notebaert, of Our Lady of Victory Church as subdeacon. Priests in the sanctuary were Rev. John H. O'Brien, of St. Augustine's church, Rev. Charles Shea, Rev. Leo Smith, Rev. C. Catalano, Rev. F. Lane and Rev. C. A. Van der Meulen. Present in the church also were Rev. John White, minister of the Gates Presbyterian Church, and his family, intimate friends of the deceased, a delegation from the Gates church and about thirty residents of Gates.

The soloists were Mrs. William H. Craig and Miss Margaret Drury.

The color guards were Sergeant A. F. Lawrence and Wagoner William Knoble and the color bearers were Corporal Blumensteel and Sergeant-Major Freeman. Lieutenant Willard E. Howell was in charge of the detail from W. W. Doud Post.

The bearers were B. C. Ben-nem, Hiram Billings, James Jones, Lester Ernst, Ben Gordon and James Kane. The firing squad at the grave was composed of Ben Schlossburg, George Siebert, Allen L. Smith, Claude Lamke, Ernest Ford, Frank Miller, Peter Budel and August Littlejohn, Earl Karker in charge. Taps were sounded at the grave by Bugler Charles Dearing. Commitment services were conducted by Rev. Father Kirk, assisted by Rev. Fathers O'Neill and Notebaert.

S. S. Peter and Paula.

The masses on Sunday morning will be held at 6:30, 8:15, 9:30 and high mass at 10:30 o'clock.

The first annual lawn fête of the Holy Name Society of this church was held on the school grounds Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week and was a complete success from every viewpoint. A seven foot wall of canvas marked the boundaries within which the fête took place. Along the walls were gaily decorated booths where refreshments were served, while overhead were strings of various colored electric lights.

Prizes were given to the oldest couple on the grounds, as well as the newest newly-weds and the youngest baby.

William M. Richer passed away last Saturday at his home, 114 1/2 Bartlett street. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. D. B. Nichols and Miss Rose Richer; two sons, Charles and William Richer and a brother, Henry Richer. The funeral took place Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Father Crowley, assisted by Father Kalb as deacon and Father Florack as sub deacon. Interment was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Schueler of Madison street are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, Robert Eugene, born on July 14th.

The Eden Electric Washer and Wringer Machine Eliminates the Strain on Wash Day

Why? Because such machines banish the wool-trying, nerve-racking physical labor common to washday in homes where the washing, rinsing and wringing are done by hand.

With an "Eden" your laundress can do the washing in one-third of the time, and the clothing will not only be washed better, but it will last longer.

Between two and three cents' worth of electricity will do the washing for an average family.

Our own faith in the Eden Electric Washer is such that we gladly send them out on trial. We will also send an operator to assist with the first washing.
