Newly Equipped "Service Station" on North Side

Owners of automobiles on the North side of Main St. will be particularly interested in knowing that Chas. E. Frodsham of 292-294 State St., has remodeled and put in new equipment throughout in his "Exide" Service Station at this address. Two entrances are provided and patrons may thus receive prompt attention. Also the idea of not crossing traffic to receive efficient service means much to the driver.

Good News to the Housewife
 Connell and Sutton, located at 123 Main St. West, are calling the attention of their patrons to the unusual qualities of the Ohio-Tuc Electric Cleaner and would especially ask them to consider the brush which is most important.

The brush of the Ohio-Tuc is not electrically driven at high speed to beat and pound and wear out the delicate fibres and even scorch the nap of your rugs and carpets. In this cleaner the brush serves only for picking up thread, lint and hair, and revolves slowly and gently and only when the machine itself is being pushed over the floor.

Surface dust and imbedded dirt are taken care of entirely by the Ohio-Tuc's greater suction power that not only draws every particle of dirt out of the fabric but sucks up any dust on the floor underneath, right through the carpet, leaving it bright, clean and fluffy as when new and keeping it that way year after year. The Ohio-Tuc is a

Geo. R. Fuller Co. Long in Business

For over forty years, in fact, since 1856, the Geo. R. Fuller Co. have conducted their business in Rochester with out interruption and with increasing prosperity. Until 1876 the business was conducted by Dr. Douglas Bly, who founded it. Then for twenty years Mr. Fuller personally continued the business, until in 1900 the present company was incorporated under the laws of the New York with a paid-up Capital of $25,000. The patience and skill exercised during these years have evolved the "Easy Lay" term "The walk Easy Lay" and placed them at the head of manufacturers of artificial limbs. Their efforts have always been to improve and perfect—to excel at every point.

They invite intending purchasers to correspond with them, that they may receive, if they are necessary or desirable, fuller details than can be given in advertisements.

They are always glad to receive inquiries and offer suggestions for the comfort of their customers.
