Rev. William H. Harrington was born in Auburn on August 8, 1859. He was educated in the public schools of that city, and upon deciding to enter the priesthood became a student at St. Andrew's Seminary. While at the seminary he attracted the attention of the bishop, who sent him to Rome where he remained for six years. In 1887 Father Harrington was ordained to the priesthood and was placed in charge of a parish at Brockport. The following year he was assigned to be chaplain and agent of the State Industrial $10.00 and $12.00 Blouses School in Rochester, - where he remained for seven years.
