Brooklyn Priest Celebrates 50th Anniversary Here

A reception to the Rev. Edward M. Weigel, C. SS. R., took place last Sunday at St. Joseph's Church following the high mass. The occasion was the 50th anniversary of Father Weigel's entrance into the Redemptorist Order. Although a native of Rochester, he is at present at the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Brooklyn. The sermon at the mass was delivered by the Rev. William Tewes, C. SS. R., who paid a warm tribute to Father Weigel. Father Weigel himself made a short address at the vespers service in the evening and at its conclusion he imparted the papal blessing to the congregation.

S. S. Peter and Paul.
The masses on Sunday morning will be held at 6:30, 8:15, 9:30 and high mass at 10:30 o'clock.

Next Sunday the Rosary Society and the Women's Sedality will receive Holy Communion in a body.

Beginning with Saturday evening, there will be evening services every night during the month of October at 7:45 o'clock consisting of the rosary and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Miss Rhea Schreier of Clifton street has returned to New Rochelle College at Rochelle, N. Y.

The first fall meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 44, Knights of St. John, will be held on Monday evening, Oct. 3rd, after the services in the church. A very important question will come up before the members and it is hoped that all members will attend the meeting.

An entertainment and pedro will be held on Wednesday evening, October 5th, under the auspices of Branch 62, L. C. B. A. All are invited to come and enjoy a pleasant evening. The branch expects to meet all their friends on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. George Guerinot of Main street West have returned to this city after a year's residence in New York, where Dr. Guerinot spent the year in study.

The funeral of Lillian Glathar Krebs, who died on last Sunday at Dr. Lee's private hospital was held on Wednesday morning at 8:30 from the home of her brother, at 332 Child street and at 9 o'clock at this church.

The funeral of Francis Lechleitner, who died on last Sunday, took place on Wednesday morning at 9:30 from 131 Allen street and 10 o'clock from this church. Interment was made in Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

ST. MICHAEL'S.
Sunday at all the masses the annual seminary collection will be taken up.

Requiem masses were said this week for George Niebling, John Rauber, Maria Winter, John and Catharine Englert, Jacob Klehr, Elizabeth Soldt, Joseph Bertsch and Catharine Fichtmaier.

On Thursday morning at 8 o'clock high mass was celebrated in honor of the feast of St. Michael, patron saint of our church, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Last Sunday evening the closing of the Forty Hours took place with procession of the school children, altar boys and a large number of priests.

The marriage of Mr. Henry Shannan to Miss Anna Schlitzer took place Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

The funeral of Mr. Philip Frank took place Friday morning at 9 o'clock. He leaves his wife, Mary Treyer Frank, three sons, George Frank of Detroit, Herbert and Nevlin Frank; six daughters, Julia, Rosalia, Angela, Eleanor, Mildred and Virginia Frank; two brothers, William and George Frank; one sister, Mrs. Anna Hammes and one grandchild.

K. Of C. Will Dine On Columbus Day

Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, will revive the custom of celebrating Columbus Day, which was discontinued when America entered the war, with a dinner Wednesday evening, October 12th, at the Itta, East avenue and Gibbs street. United States Senator James W. Wadsworth will be one of the speakers. Because of the limited capacity of the banquet hall it has been decided by the committee in charge to limit attendance to men. John J. McInerney, who will assume office as grand knight of the council on October 1st, will preside as toastmaster, and Senator Wadsworth will hold a reception in the green room before the banquet. The dinner will be served at 7 o'clock. Tickets may be obtained from Michael J. Kavanaugh, secretary, at the K. of C. clubhouse in Main street east.

NO BLESSING OF GRAVES

Abandoned This Year; Will Hold Services on All Souls' Day.

There will be no ceremony of blessing the graves this year at Holy Sepulcher cemetery, it was announced by Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Hickey, bishop of the diocese. The blessing was cancelled last Sunday because of rain.

Instead memorial services will be held on the evening of All Souls' day, November 2d, and announcement of which will be made in the Catholic churches of the city on the preceding Sunday.

St. Andrew's Church

The masses on Sunday will be held at:—6, 7:30, 9:15 and high mass at 10:30 o'clock.

The Altar Society will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Next Sunday will be communion day for the Rosary Society. On Friday morning, October 7, the Forty Hour's devotion will open in this church, and close on Sunday evening with a procession.

Confessions will be heard on next Thursday afternoon and evening in preparation for the Forty Hours.

Requiem masses were offered this week for Barbara Wiener, A. Kress, Treasia Donovan, Joseph Thoman and on Thursday, the feast of St. Michael, for the members of the congregation.

A mission will open in this church the last week in October. Next Friday evening the L. C. B. A. will hold a meeting after the services.

Next Sunday a supplementary collection will be taken up at all the masses for the Seminary, for those whom the solicitors have not reached.

Charles J. Knapp, for alderman, Frank J. Mattern for supervisor and John B. Schaefer for constable are making a thorough canvass in this 22nd ward for the coming election.

St. Francis Xavier Church

Masses on Sunday will be said at 7, 8, 9:15 and 10:30 o'clock.

Requiem masses were said this week for the repose of the souls of Joseph Danzer, Charles Derleth, Edward Tecklow, Mary and Sebastian Shum.

Sunday is communion day for the Rosary Society.

Rosary devotions will take place on Tuesday and Friday evenings at 7:45 o'clock during the month of October.

Confessions will be heard on next Thursday afternoon and evening in preparation for the First Friday.
