Main Baking Company

This company was started seven years ago in a little bakery on Reynolds St. by Mr. A. F. Main, in the beginning Mr. Main doing his own baking and delivering. In a short while he outgrew this, then moved to a larger place at the corner of Jay & Colvin Streets and in six months' time this was too small for him. He then leased a bakery at 200 Orange St. and in three years' time he outgrew this place. Then he leased a new and modern bakery corner of Clifford Ave., and Dudley Street in three years time this place became too small for his growing business. He then acquired his present location, 1050 52-54 Clifford Ave. corner of North St., which is a two-story brick building. He has now not only a large and spacious building, 15,000 feet of floor space, but well adapted and located for his business. Mr. Main believes that this place will hold him for quite some time, but he also said "who knows? For we are still growing." Mr. Main states that the pastry and cake end of his business is quiet, due entirely to business depression in general. People are eating less sweet goods and more bread these times. He states that his bread business has shown an increase of 20% and today D-Lite Bread is being used in thousands of homes. At present he is operating twenty routes, his products being sold directly to the consumer. Mr. Main seems to have the ability of doing things and is recognized by people who really know him as a man of force.

The Melo-D

Music, the most potent and subtle of all the Arts, finds its expression through infinite combinations of Harmony and Rhythm.
The advent of the Phonograph has put the master pieces of the world's great artists within the reach of all, thus probably contributing more to education and enjoyment than any other invention.
The Melo-D Phonograph not only meets the demands of the public for ease of operation, mechanical perfection, simplicity and durability, but it has swept away also the last question and doubts of the artistic and musical importance of the Phonograph, which may have been entertained by musical authorities.
This popular Phonograph is sold by the Melo-D Phonograph Co., 273 Central Avenue, Rochester, N. Y. and has won the approbation of prominent musical people everywhere.

Save Time and Trouble

Reliable transfer and carting service is a great time saver and economy.
The Smith Carting Co. make a specialty of light hauling and transfer to all parts of the city.
The moving season is near at hand and you will wish to move as easily and economically as possible.
A telephone call to our office, which is at 106 Commercial St. (Phone Main 6450) will command prompt attention.

Moving Near or Far—Real Service Given

Transporting household goods is one of the big features of the work done by the Geo. M. Clancy Carting Company, 112 Roswood Terrace, Rochester, N. Y.
Moving of household goods from one residence to another in the city, long distance hauls or the transport of goods for storage require plenty of equipment as well as the employment of careful, dependable men.
The Geo. M. Clancy Company have a complete line of auto vans for both local and long distance moving and employ experienced men, which puts them in position to guarantee all work.
