Dangers of Guessing When Operating Auto

Every rough and slippery road, every bit of crowded traffic, every extensive grade, every sharp curve, every quick stop or start keeps the average driver of an automobile guessing.

While the guessing part of motoring may be interesting in one's first few trials, it after a time becomes monotonous, uncomfortable and frequently unprofitable.

It is a guess with many just how the car will "act". When occasions arise necessitating a quick stop or a sudden start in crowded traffic, or "how she will act" when taking a steep grade or a sharp turn.

Intensified guessing with accompanied worryment of what will happen before the end of the journey reached. All guess and worryment can be avoided by taking advantage of the service rendered all patrons of the Gould Storage Battery Service and Sales Station, H. Ellery Erhardt, 491 E. Main St., near Seio, and having your machine equipped with a Gould Battery.

Mill Work Is Real Work When Done By Rochester Mill Work Co.

Mill work of every kind required in house construction is furnished by the Rochester Mill Work Company, 45 Warehouse Street. Sash, doors, veneered doors, window frames, interior finish, stair work, porch work, moldings of every size and pattern, trim of various kinds in a variety of woods, all are provided on short notice and at a reasonable price, from stock patterns or special designs.

A considerable part of the Mill Work used in many of the residences erected here this summer came from this firm's shapers and planers.

Have Your Rugs Cleaned Now

Have your rugs cleaned now. All summer long your windows have been open and your rugs of course need a thorough cleaning now as winter approaches. Modern methods of rug cleaning eliminates entirely the destructive effects of the old time beating and pounding.

There are two reasons why you will find it most satisfactory to let the Elter Cleaning Co., 27 Arthur Street, clean your rugs this fall rather than have the work done in any other manner. In the first place they'll save you work and bother. And the second reason is that they'll do the work much more satisfactorily than you have had it done heretofore.

Elter cleaning will restore and give new life to the colors and clean your rugs without wear or harmful effects.

No Snakes in Ireland.

It is said that there are no snakes in Ireland, but the story that they were driven out by St. Patrick is probably based more on hearsay than historical evidence. The phrase "Concerning Snakes in Ireland," is frequently quoted in connection with the above story, but the phrase is itself a misquotation and had in reality nothing to do with snakes in Ireland. The original phrase does not refer to Ireland at all but to Ireland. In a translation of Harbison's works, "The Natural History of Ireland," published in London in 1758, chapter 42 is headed "Concerning Oats," and is as follows: "There are no ovals of any kind in the whole island." Chapter 72 is entitled "Concerning Snakes," and the entire chapter is as follows: "No snakes of any kind are to be met with throughout the whole of the island." The application of the phrase to Ireland probably at first arose from a printer's error. New Orleans Times-Picayune.
