Fads and Fancies from the Art Department
Every fad and fancy is welcome news at this time of choosing and making gifts.

Serving trays are fads—yes, but very lasting fads—for whether it is for serving at winter parties or for summer evenings, they are indispensable. We have mahogany trays with an inlaid design in gold as a center with a glass covering and a decorative handle at either end. They have felt underneath, so that there is no danger of marring the choicest table. The prices range from $1.65 to $3.25.

A fancy which is useful is a fudge apron—which will not rebel at being used for more serious culinary purposes. Stamped with adorable designs—35c.

Luncheon squares and napkins of heavy muslin are both fads and fancies, and altogether charming. Stamped in an exquisite design of cozy teapots and cups 98c and $1.29.

A brand new fancy of Fashion in white for outdoor sports. Great heavy white sweaters and tams will appear at the skating rinks and coasting parties this winter and the wearers will rival the snowflakes in charm.

We have heavy yarn especially for this type of sports apparel:—
White or cream Fleischer's yarn at 75c hank.
Cream Amoskeag yarn at 49c hank.
