The DAY DREAMS
of the OLD FOLKS
AT CHRISTMAS
by Frank L. Stanton

Old folks, too, like Christmas; Grandfather, sitting there,
Feels sad if he's forgotten 'cause he's in his chimney-chair;
He says he's thinkin' of the days that he
no more will see,
When he was just a little boy—a Christmas boy—like me.

He listens to the fire—for it's always talkin' so,
And then it is he calls to mind his good times long ago
When the Christmas wind was whistlin'
through the cold and frosty nights
And children dreamed of Christmas bells and watched for Christmas lights.

He doesn't seem to hear at all the noise
the children make,
For when he sits the stillest there he's dreamin' wide awake!
But mother—then she tells us to all run
right out and play,
For old folks hear sweet music when they're dreamin' day by day.

And then Grandmother—SHE comes in and sits beside him there,
And puts her hand in his, and says sweet
words he loves to hear;
But what they are she'd never tell to mother or to you;
She knows that he is dreamin', for she dreams the same dreams, too.

So Christmas comes to old folks, and it's then they love to know
The children don't forget 'em, though they lived so long ago!
An' they say the sweetest present of all sweet things and fair)
Is a kiss on Christmas mornin', when we climb their chimney-chair.
